Educators Respond to Textbook Survey Questionnaire

Eighty-four principals out of 123 principals in Contra Costa County have responded to a questionnaire presented by the Contra Costa Textbook Study Committee, according to Bill Zion, chairman.

The questionnaire's results have been transmitted to the Assembly Education Committee which is considering several bills on textbook matters.

Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle, Republican from Lafayette, expects some compromise legislation to pass during this session, stated Zion.

APPENDICES, containing all the detailed answer to the questionnaire, have been compiled.

The study was started March 22. The program was aimed at determining the factual picture of this county's schools as it relates to the question of the state textbook sysem, Zion told The Sun.

Included in the study were amounts spent by local schools for books, in addition to those supplied by the state; delivery, availability, physical quality, usage, etc., of state books as compared to those purchased locally direct from the publishers; and preferences of local school officials as to the various alternatives for supplying textbooks.

Questions and answers received by the committee are as follows:

1. ARE THERE any books you are now using as supplementaries that your teachers would prefer to use as basic texts.
   Yes: 71
   No. 9

2.Is the physical quality of the books printed by the state comparable to those printed by the publisher? If not, in what way?
   Yes: 54
   No: 24
   (most frequent: bindings, illustrations, color, durability, printing, paper)

3. IS THE STATE adoption period (normally six to eight years) satisfactory?
   Yes: 26
   No: 54

4. Which of the following systems is preferred for the adoption of basic texts, assuming the present level of state textbook financing for each alternative?
   a. Present system: 12
   b. Multiple state adoption: 41
   c. County adoption rather than state adoption: 14
   d. District adoption: 20

Some principals had more than one preference.

B. Questions asked each elementary school district superintendent.

1. Amounts spent for supplementaries?

Answers ranged from 25 cents to $2.50 per student annually. The average was $1.35 per pupil. The figures do not include amounts sometimes budgeted at new schools, nor do they include PTA contributions.

2. Were any state books late or not delivered in September, 1956?

Four districts reported no late books.

One district said a new eighth grade social studies text was ordered late and was out of stock.

Another said supplementary social studies were one month late.

Another said that some books came last week that were ordered last June.

Another said that social studies books have been, and continue to be, late.

The last said some books were late.

3. ARE THE STATE books and workbooks always available?

Seven districts reported they were. One said they normally were, but not always. The last said state supplementary readers were not available.

4. How long for delivery of supplementary books after ordering from publishers?

The range was from three days to six weeks, with the most common figure two weeks. One district noted longer delays when additional printings were necessary.

Proposed Levy Is Basis 'For Readers' Bonanza

By NORMAN COLBY

A recommendation for construction of a $1 million "regional" library in the central county area, presumably in the vicinity of Lafayette, Walnut Creek or Concord, is in a Master Plan report submitted to the County Board of Supervisors by County Librarian Bertha Hellum.

The giant library building would have some 75,000 square feet of interior space. It would have auxiliary mobile units for extended service, and would serve 150,000 residents.

The Master Plan report suggests that there be three regional libraries, one each in the west, central and east portion of the county. The central county would get the largest library since it has the fastest expanding population, and is the center of future residential development. Its potential circulation is twice that of Richmond.

THE FINANCING of such an enterprise depends on State Assembly Bill 1019, which has been reported out of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, and has been on the Assembly floor.

It will be taken under consideration by the Senate Committee on Local Government, and should go to the Senate floor soon afterwards.

The bill is a permissive one. It would allow each county in California to levy up to three mils for library purposes. A one-mil levy is now in effect in Contra Costa County, but it is earmarked for maintenance only.

If passed, the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors may consider increasing the levy, and may hold hearings.

A THREE-MIL levy in the county would raise more than $1 million per year, based on last July's assessed valuation figure of $651,118,065.

Mrs. Hellum assured The Sun that the current policy of maintaining existing community libraries in the county would continue as before, and only the additional money would be considered for construction.

"When the regional libraries are built, much of the pressure on the community libraries would be relieved," she predicted.

"Some persons have asked about using the money to build community libraries, but this seems hardly fair to the communities which have already worked to raise money for their own buildings."

MRS. HELLUM continued. "There is a rapid growth taking place in the county, especially in the central section and an accelerated demand for service.

"This is the long-range way to make sure that this service keeps up with the need.

"The three regional libraries, although within the county framework, will be much like the strong municipal type of library, with complete reference service and complete staffs working at all hours convenient for the people.

"So the people will be able to get service through their convenient community libraries and also the regional libraries. And there will be less pressure on the community libraries," she added.

THE EXACT site for the central county library has not been made known to avoid undue land speculation. Experts have conferred on possible sites in past months.

Cost to build it would vary between $12 and $20 per square foot.

Although Martinez is the headquarters for the county library system, the highest circulation is in Concord, with some 150,000 books per year. Walnut Creek is a close second.

In Walnut Creek, a local drive is on to finance a new city library, which will receive county maintenance funds and funds for staffing. The site is on Camplin Avenue. Estimated cost will be $125,000.

The old building on East Street has 1400 square feet; the proposed building may have up to 10,000 square feet.

The three-mil levy would not be based on the total county valuation of 516,118,065, but on a lesser figure obtained by subtracting the assessed valuation of Richmond, which has its own library district. Richmond's valuation last July was $136,441,875.

Indications are that the proposed assembly bill has a good chance of passing during the current legislative session which will end in June.

Grand Jury to Meet Monday For Indictment Decision

The Contra Costa Grand Jury will decide Monday night whether or not to return indictments against one or more persons involved in alleged irregularities in the County Recorders Office.

The Grand Jury in a seven hour session yesterday heard testimony of James Todesco, Hoyt Hayden, Howard McNamer and Mrs. Ralph Cunningham.

Ralph Cunningham and Jack B. Haule submitted to the grand jury doctor's certificates that they could not appear before the group for health reasons.

A court reporter was present during the hearings so that proper action could be taken in case indictments were returned, said Philip Bancroft Jr., foreman.

Charges have been hurled at the county recorder, Ralph Cunningham; James Todesco, a senior clerk and Jack B. Haule, an intermediate clerk by the sheriff's department.

Todesco has admitted kicking back part of his salary to Haule and Haule has been charged with accepting the kickback and pocketing fees paid for duplicate birth certificates.

Cunningham has been charged that in his position as the recorder he knew of the transactions, but said nothing by the sheriff.

THE RECORDER'S office has been under investigation since April 18 when a shortage was found in the accounts of Haule. In addition salary kickbacks to Haule by Todesco, were disclosed, said Bancroft.

April 18 a Walnut Creek resident went to the recorder's office to obtain a duplicate copy of a birth certificate. He paid $1 to Haule and received the certificate.

Later in the same day the Sheriff's department learned the person had not received a receipt and that he had informed the county that Haule had put the money in his pocket, states a sheriff's reporter.

THE SHERIFF'S office called County Aduitor Howard McNamer and McNamer called the District Attorney's office.

Futher check by the sheriff's office showed there were other payments for birth certificates which were not entered in the fee book in the recorders office.

Next, it was learned that Todesso had been paying $12 a month to Haule since Haule had given up his seniority to Todesco so that Todesco could take over the chief clerk's job in the recorder's office.

HAULE RESIGNED from the county April 19 on grounds of ill health.

Cunnigham denied knowledge of the kickbacks or the missing funds but stated that when one person gets a promotion or someone else gives up his seniority. it has been a common practice in the county government to pay that person's part of the salary increase.

Todesco, in return for Haule's favor in giving up his seniority rights, kicked back $12 a month which amounts to half of his raise, according to Todesco.

Todesco had been paying for three years, he stated.

Under section 1195 of the Government Code of the State of California kickbacks of salary or fees are a felony offense if anyone in city, county or state government is involved.

April 22 the grand jury met to investigate the charges of kickbacks and pocketing of county funds. The grand jury ordered the grand jury auditor and the grand jury aduiting committee to study the recorder's books.

THE DISTRICT attorney was instructed by the County Board of Supervisors April 23 "to keep a watchful eye on the entire situation."

April 30, the district attorney reported back to the supervisors that he was only interested in the criminal aspects of the case if there were any.

The same day the sheriff issued an appeal to all residents who had ever had dealings with the recorder's office to report to the sheriff. All cases were checked out and additional funds were found missing from the recorders office, said the sheriff.

Bandits Terrify Store Owner, Stage Robbery

Two young men—one of them keeping his hand in his coat pocket as if he held a gun—entered the Moraga Store in Moraga about 3 p.m. Wednesday and terrified Mrs. Evelyn Kazar, the owner, into opening the cash register.

One of the bandits scooped the bills out of the cash register but left the coins. Mrs. Kazar later told Deputy Sheriff Earl Clark that she estimated the stolen bills to total between $65 and $75.

The story she related to Clark, who came from the sheriff's substation in Lafayette, was as follows:

SHE WAS in her living quarters at the rear of the store when she heard the bell ring as the store door was opened. Coming into the store, she found the two young men, who appeared to be between 19 and 23 years of age, standing at the counter. No other persons were in the store at the time.

One of the men shoved a pencil-printed note on a piece of torn paper across the counter. The note read: "This is a stake up. Hand me all money."

The other, keeping his hand in his coat pocket as though holding a gun, said, "Be quiet and nothing will happen to you."

TERRIFIED, Mrs. Kazar opened the cash register, and the man who had shoved the note across the counter scooped out the bills.

The two young men drove away in a car which had been parked in front of the store.

Mrs. Kazar said she did not know in which direction it was driven off.

DEPUTY CLARK later reported that about 10 minutes before the robbery—at approximately 2:50 p.m.—Mrs. Art Fleuti and Lawrence E. Ruff, 23-year-old St. Mary's College student were waxing the floor of the Moraga Bar across the street when a young man, whose description seemed to taly with that of one of the robbers, appeared.

"Stay out—the floor is still wet," Mrs. Fleuti called out.

"I only wanted to borrow a pencil," the young man said.

Mrs. Fleuti tossed him a pencil. He disappeared. About three minutes later he came back and returned the pencil, she told the deputy.

Civic Affairs Committee Asks Board Perusal

The Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association Monday night requested the Board of Directors of the association "to investigate all possible methods to obtain adequate financing" for possible purchase of 10½ acres of Pine Grove land from Pacific Intermountain Express Company.

The action was taken on motion of Neville Daniels of Orinda Estates, who declared the association has a moral obligation to act on the PIE offer to sell the land to the association.

Earlier in the Civic Affairs meeting at the Orinda School, Association Vice President Fred Twining reported that decision of future association action on the question of the court fight against PIE's previous plans to erect an office headquarters building would be made by the June 10 board meeting.

AT LAST WEEK'S board session it was announced that PIE had informed the association that it "has no plans for building on the property" at the Pine Grove. The company also offered to sell the land to the community.

Also at the board meeting last week, Everett Howe of the Orinda Community Church reported on the church's need for expansion and additional parking space.

Prior to the Civic Affairs vote Monday night, Association President Gene Estes asked the delegates for opinions of their groups as to whether the association board should do nothing about the PIE offer or whether the board should take advantage of the offer in any practicable way.

DISCUSSED at the Civic Affairs meeting was the possibility of the association's selling about four acres of Orinda Community Center land to the church, as a means of raising part of the money for a down payment on the Pine Grove land.

PIE bought the Pine Grove site from the East Bay Municipal Utility District in 1954 for $106,000.

During Monday night's meeting Emil Pierre, chairman of the Civic Affairs steering committee, troduced Alvin Burton, and Jim Hokanson, vice presidents of the Contra Costa County Park and Recreation Council.

BURTON DISCUSSED the problem of acquiring suitable park areas for the county, while Hokanson showed slides.

In his talk Burton stated that he and others believed that of the 6500 acres in the San Pablo Reservoir area, placed on the market by EBMUD, the flat, lower land should be developed for homes, and the sloping, hillside land should be kept as a park area.

In the absence of Chairman Ralph C. Hall, the Civic Affairs meeting was conducted by vice chairman Ross Van Dyke.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that the next Civic Affairs meeting wil be held June 10 at Orinda School, instead of on the third Monday of June, since both Dr. Hall and Van Dyke will be out of town June 17.

The first of the board's two June sessions will also be held June 10 at Orinda School, but the board will meet separately fromh the Civic Affairs Committee.

Brown Gives Gift to New C of C Head

An attractive new gavel and block were presented to the 1957-58 officers of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday by Merle Brown, retiring president.

The objects were presented by Brown as his farewell gift at the chamber's regular luncheon meeting at Casa Orinda.

The gift was accepted by Secretary-Treasurer Clarence Betz, in the absence of President-elect Maynard Buehler, who is traveling in Europe.

BUEHLER and his board will be installed at a noon luncheon meeting June 4.

During last Tuesday's meeting it was reported that through arrangement by the chamber, the bus stop is being cleaned nightly and watered weekly.

Also, the general area in that vicinity is kept clean, it was stated.

BROWN pointed out that the chamber is paying for this. "There is still the possibility that the state could take this over," he said.

School Board OKs Pay Hike For Teachers

AT a special meeting Monday night at the Pine Grove School, the Orinda Union School District Board adopted a new salary schedule for district teachers for the 1957-58 school year, providing an average increase of $550 per year per teacher.

Under the new schedule, minimum pay will be $4200, instead of the present $3900. Maximum annual pay will be $7400, instead of the present $7110.

Superintendent of Schools Josph L. Sheaff explained later that the higher salary levels depend on the amount of additional college work for which the teachers have obtained credits.

Present at Monday night's special meeting were representatives of the Orinda Teachers Organization.

The new salary schedule is the result of a year's study by a committee consisting of representatives of the school board and the teachers' group, Sheaff said.

Housing Authority Answers Charges To CC Grand Jury

Charges of ousted Contra Costa Housing Authority Maintenance Superintendent Fred Anthon were denied May 16 at a special meeting of housing authority commissioners.

In a reply to the Contra Costa Grand Jury, the commissioners approved a letter explaining allegations made by Anthon. The reply was prepared by Ronald Howard, executive director of the authority and A. F. Bray Jr., the attorney for the commission.

The reply stated that "the authority would welcome inspection of its operations by the grand jury or any other public agency."

"As in many other cases of government bodies the criticism is easily made but less easily substantiated.

"Mr. Anthon is in the position of any employee whose position has been done away with and his attitude is not surprising."

Anthon claims that he was discharged for "telling all he knew" to a federal investigator. The authority has stated that Anthon was discharged in a budget cut.

Phil Bancroft Jr., foreman of the Contra Costa Grand Jury stated that the matter of Anthon's charges and the reply of the charges made by the housing authority might be discussed at the final session of the grand jury Monday night.

Charges were made April 10 by Anthon that there were "irregularities" in the operations of the housing authority.

ANTHON'S CHARGES were made in an open letter to the commissioners, the grand jury and the press. Anthon was ousted by the commission March 13.

Charges were made by Anthon against Howard, Gerould Gill, chairman, and George Weise, a commissioner.

W. H. Carpenter, commissioner, stated that Anthon had been a trouble maker in the authority and had been suspended earlier for "misconduct for one week without pay."

IN ANSWER TO charges that Weise had sold a car to a Walnut Creek auto firm and the same day the car was sold, in turn, to the Housing Authority, Weise said.

"It's not anybody's business what I do with my car. What happened was that I traded my car in on a new model. I had purchased the old car at wholesale prices and the most I could get for it was $1150.

"I knew that the authority was looking for a car of that model and size and the car was in excellent condition. In fact, in the two years that the authority has had the car, only minor repair work has been performed.

"I informed the authority that my car was available and three bids were requested from Jurs in Walnut Creek, Tunnel Motors and another firm. Tunnel Motors bid was $200 lower than any other.

"I THINK the authority got a good deal out of the transaction," Weise said.

Asked who the legal owner was at the time of the sale, Weise stated: "Tunnel Motors was both the legal and registered owner."

Howard commented that there were records on file to back Weise's story.

Another charge of Anthon states that Gill used his position for personal gain.

Anthon alleges that Gill's Marsh Creek Lodge was the location of a Housing Authority employee's party in which Gill was paid over $500 for his services and goods used.

GILL STATED the party cost him $100 out of his own pocket and that the employees got more than their money's worth out of the party.

Housing authority funds were used, states Anthon.

Gill commented that the housing authority had never operated on taxpayers dollars.

Boy, 2, Badly Hurt by Auto

Two-year-old John Francis McKenna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross McKenna of 514 Florence Drive, Lafayette, was in serious condition yesterday at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek as the result of being hit by an auto in front of Burton School.

The accident occurred at 6 p.m. Tuesday on St. Mary's Road, according to the California Highway Patrol. Driver of the car which hit the boy was Mrs. Margaret C. Bennett, 42, 419 Castello Road, Lafayette.

The patrol reported that Mrs. Bennett was driving south on St. Mary's Road and that she stated the boy had darted easterly out of some bushes on the southbound shoulder of the road. She informed the patrol that she swerved to try to avoid hitting the boy.

DOCTORS at the hospital reported shortly before 6 p.m. Wednesday that the boy suffered a basal skull fracture and that he was still unconscious but had a fair chance of recovering.

Shortly before noon yesterday the office of the director of nursing service at the hospital reported that the boy was still unconscious and that his condition was "unchanged."

Hubert Bancroft Wrote And Wrote and Wrote!

By NORMAN COLBY

When the University of California half a century ago asked Hubert Howe Bancroft of Walnut Creek to write some California history, its professors weren't prepared for the "flood" that resulted.

The Bancrofts began patrolling Northern California, stopping at large and small towns, picking up all sorts of information and incidents which were until then only memories of the "oldtimers."

When still not satisfied, they would visit graveyards, and copy names off the tombstones.

ONE TIME near the turn of the century, the Bancroft team was immobilized in Sonoma by a snowstorm, and to pass the time took down the names of the dogs and cats that died in that vicinity!

The story of Hubert Bancroft, the first of the Walnut Creek Bancrofts and considered the literary man of the family, was told last week by Stuart Morton Boland of San Francisco, a noted writer.

He spoke at the first meeting of the San Ramon Valley Writers Workshop, held at the Danville Women's Club on Linda Mesa Avenue.

"The Bancrofts were great writers and great people," Boland said.

"BUT THE university finally had to call a halt when the Bancrofts had sent in about 74 volumes," he added, laughing.

Before Hubert Bancroft came to the Walnut Creek area in 1888, nearly two decades before the famous earthquake, he had a bookshop in San Francisco.

His son, Phil Bancroft Sr., became an attorney and then turned his attention to growing pears and walnuts. Phil Bancroft Jr. followed in the tradition.

Most literary of the living Bancrofts is Anne Bancroft, now living near Santa Rosa.

THE VOLUMES which Hubert Bancroft prepared an others are kept at the Bancroft library section of the University of California Library, Berkeley.

The reference by Boland to the Bancrofts was to emphasize his point that the Northern California scenes and atmosphere should be inspiration for hopeful writers.

He said that everyone has a story to tell, and in America, its vehicle is a "flexible, beautiful language."

"The American language is rich, the clearing house of all languages," he declared.

A GOOD first step in the literary field is writing poetry, for it makes the writer choose the best words," he continued.

Turning to politics, he commented that the people today are not electing the candidates, but they are electing "the phantom, the ghost writer does all the thinking for these men."

Some ghost writers are fine artists, such as Sinclair Lewis who was a ghost writer for Jack London, and Barnaby Conrad, who ghosted for Sinclair Lewis.

Examples of men who needed no ghost writers were Woodrow Wilson, Teddy Roosevelt and Alvin Barkeley.

BOLAND advised that the writer should use free rein in his work, and the "free flow of thought" in society is necessary for great writing.

"Words are tools; ideas are fact — if you think, what you think of exists," he said.

Boland wrote "Legends of San Francisco" and other books, and a child's book he completed is now being adapted to the ballet.

The first meeting of the Writers Workshop was attended by about 22 persons from the area. Ann Miller Vipp of Danville, who is organizing the group, said that anothed well-known writer will be at the next meeting on June 20 at the Women's Club.

LET ENGINE IDLE

Don't cut off the engine immediately after a long drive, especially a drive through mountains. Let the engine idle for a few minutes before calling it a day. Two results are thus accomplished: The prevention of loss of water through boiling and the prevention of vapor lock in the fuel line.

Orinda Value Days Offer Local Shoppers Bargains

Today and tomorrow Value Days are offering bargains and special buys galore to Orinda shoppers.

Orinda Value Days started yesterday.

Planned by the Merchants Committee of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, the three-day event has been in preparation for some time.

It was eagerly awaited by the Orinda public, since Orindans know, from past experience, that Orinda Value Days are really special occasions.

CHAIRMAN John Ogden of the Merchants Committee of the chamber points out that local stores are cooperating fully in the big event.

"Your merchants are offering regular quality merchandise at special value prices during Orinda Value Days," Ogden said yesterday.

"This is merchandise which has been selected from the regular stock on the merchants' shelves—not merchandise which has merely been purchased for a special sales event.

"THIS ASSURES the shopper of true value during Orinda Value Days."

Participating stores will display large, colorful window banners.

Special Orinda Value Days advertisements appear in this issue. Be sure to check them . . . it'll be to your advantage to do so!

"ORINDA VALUE DAYS," Ogden continued, "really serve a double purpose.

"They offer the shoppers many real bargains of top-quality merchandise.

"They also enable the merchant and the people of the community to get better acquainted with one another.

"The entire event serves as an effective reminder that 'it pays to shop at home.'"

AFS Honors Mrs. Mika, Mrs. Sanford

Mrs. T. D. Sanford of Hacienda Circle, Orinda, gave a luncheon Wednesday to honor Mrs. Thomas F. Mika, who is leaving to live in the East.

Members of the American Field Service Committee who attended were Mesdames Andre Roegiers, Marshall Shapiro, Sig Groennings, Andor Polgar, Fred Fowkes, Paul Pollaczek and Thomas F. Mika.

The committee surprised Mrs. Sanford by presenting to her a token of appreciation for all that she has done to found and establish the American Field Service International Scholarship program in Orinda and Contra Costa County.

This token consisted of a necklace and earrings of hand-blown Venetian glass beads from Italy.

Stable Sued For Alleged Injury to Girl

Grizzley Stables of Orinda and its owner, Ray Ensminger, have been sued for $75,000 damages by an Oakland man who claims that his five-year-old daughter was severely injured when thrown from a horse rented from the stable.

Complainant is Thomas A. Flippen of 5416 Thomas Avenue, Oakland, acting for his daughter, Alexis Ann.

He said that the horse was represented as being gentle and safe for a very young child to ride, but that it broke loose and threw the child. She suffered head and facial injuries, his complaint stated.

Confirmation Bill Partisan Attempt Says Donald Doyle

An effort to over-ride Governor Goodwin Knight's veto of a Senate confirmation bill was labeled a "partisan attempt" by Assemblyman Donald Doyle of Lafayette this week.

Last Saturday the assembly sustained the veto by a 40-29 vote of a bill which would have required senate confirmation of all future governor's appointments of the State Superintendent of Banks.

THOUGH THE Senate had voted not to over-ride the veto 39-1, only Democratic members of the Assembly voted against the governor.

Doyle said that the bill, authored by George Mill Jr. of Martinez, was an attempt to "embarras the governor."

The Lafayette Republican declared that the assembly had "wisely" sustained the governor, since "he has vetoed very few bills and does so only after careful study of them."

IN HIS NINE YEARS in the state senate, this was the first time that Miller, Democratic senator representing Contra Costa County, had received a veto on a bill reaching the governor's desk.

He declared successfully in arguing for senate action on the veto that the power of confirmation should be in the hands of legislative and not the executive branch of the government.

When the proposal to over-ride the veto first reached the assembly chambers last week, they rejected it by a 53-8 vote. A motion by Democratic minority leader William Munnell to reconsider brought the matter to another vote Saturday.

County Agents Hear Parmer

Ross Parmer, representative of the Fireman Fund Insurance Company, spoke to 20 insurance agents of the Contra Costa County Agents Association on May 13 at the El Monte Restaurant in Concord.

Mr. Parmer discussed the new Commercial Property Floater policy for mercantile risk. Now that the form and rates have been standardized, he state, it is easier for the agents to sell this policy.

Assembly Rejects Amendment; Votes Gill Net Measure

The State Assembly this week rejected an amendment designed to extend commercial fishing for one year in the tidal waters above Carquinez Bridge and then overwhelmingly passed a bill banning all commercial shad and salmon fishing in the delta waters.

The vote on the bill was 67-11 and set September 27 at the date for completion of all fishing operations from the Carquinez Bridge to a point 15 miles upstream.

THE ORIGINAL senate bill authored by Senator Louis Sutton, Maxwell, Republican, had set September 10 as the final day, but the assembly extended the period 14 days on an amendment sponsored by Alan Pattee (R-Salinas).

Assemblyman Donald Doyle of Lafayette opposed the bill and voted with the 11 opponents of the measure.

"This bill will put several hundred people out of business," he declared.

"You just can't say because there are 700 fishermen and several thousand sportsmen that the rights of the sportsmen should be protected at all costs," the assemblyman said.

"THESE FISHERMEN are making their living in this water and should be given a reasonable time to end their operation," Doyle told The Sun.

The Lafayette Republcan pointed out that he had offered a bill two years ago providing a two year period for the fishermen to end gill netting in the delta waters.

He added that "undue pressure" had been brought by sportsmen organizations and said that a "reasonable compromise" could have been worked out if the matter had been approached differently.

BUT ASSEMBLYMAN William Biddick Jr. (D-Stockton) declared that salmon had dropped from a half million fish in the Sacramento River last year to 200,000 this year.

He said that commercial fishing was a part-time endeavor for the river fishermen, declaring that the catch last year had averaged only $1000 per fisherman.

In the final vote on Wednesday three Democrats and eight Republicans voted against the bill after the one-year amendment offered by Patrick McGee (R-Encino) had failed 51-20.

The measure now goes to the senate for approval of a minor change sponsored by the bill's author, Sutton.

When first considered in the senate, the bill was opposed by Senator George Miller Jr., Martinez, Democrat.

Two Bond Issues Pass, One Fails In County Voting

Eighteen incumbents in Contra Costa County were successful in bids for reelection against opposition last Friday at the polls.

A bond issue was passed in the Mt. Diablo Unified School District and in the Moraga School District a tax rate ceiling increase from $1.25 to $1.75 was approved, but a proposed bond issue, state loan and tax increase were rejected in Walnut Creek.

O. J. Wohlgemuth of Walnut Creek was reelected to the Contra Costa Junior College Board.

Borough System Proposed For Central Contra Costa

Borough government for central Contra Costa County has been proposed by 13 civic leaders who met recently to consider the possibilities and effects of this type of government.

The group met as individuals under the chairmanship of Joe McFarland, first president of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council on May 15 at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center.

LISTING EIGHT principal conclusions" and four "general points of agreement," the group has plans to hold its second meeting June 19 at the center.

According to McFarland, representatives of civic organizations in the area will be invited to attend.

The area proposed for the borough government has a population of 150,000 and includes Orinda, Moraga, Lafayette, Happy Valley, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville, Walden, Pleasant Hill, Ygnacio Valley, Concord and Clayton Valley.

"IMMEDIATE attention," McFarland said, "was given to the unincorporaed areas."

The group expressed certain dissatisfactions with county government, particularly with the effect of spot zoning upon master plans and with annexation by cities of choice unincorporated lands.

They said that the area under consideration would be solidly built up within the next few years."

". . COMMUNITY control over planning" was listed as a benefit from borough government by the group.

Other conclusions drawn by the group about borough government improvements maintained that "elective restrictions would . . . retain maximum control in the taxpayer hands," each community could preserve its identity and character, greater efficency could be attained at lower cost with less district overlapping and a "higher caliber" of administrative personnel could be secured.

This group also stated that "maximum state subvention and sales tax income would accrue to this form of government."

A STATEMENT issued by McFarland outlining these advantages also noted that a larger, representative committee would be needed to study the subject with "considerable study and planning "necessary before a definite decision could be made.

One of the possible difficulties facing borough government which the committee considered was the broad definition in the State Code of this form of government.

Any borough government would establish a precedent and would be dependent upon interpretation of the constitutional wording.

IN THE NOVEMBER, 1956 elections a proposed constitutional amendment permitting the formation of borough government when desired by communities was defeated 2,389,554 to 1,475,405.

But in additional "general points of agreement" suggesting the necessity of borough government, the committee points out that the area "embraces . . . 150,000 people, action must be taken to place logical control over a rapidly increasing population, brakes must be applied to the spirals and most community problems are common to the entire area."

These accomplishmets of borough government, the group maintains, could be achieved without loss of community identities, since communities need not incorporate to form a borough government.

Annexation to EBMUD Sought

Annexation to East Bay Municipal Utility District of some 900 acres of ranch and future residential lands southeast of the Sacramento Northern Railway right-of-way are being filed with EBMUD.

Extending from St. Mary's College to EBMUD property near the upper end of the San Leandro Reservoir watershed, the land includes some holdings of Utah Construction Company and several other ranch and residential properties in the Larch Avenue-Camino Pablo section, formerly known as Moraga Tract 9.

The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, which serves the residences in the Larch Avenue-Camino Pablo area through Local Improvement District 26, has approved the action.

The annexation is sought by Utah Construction Company for subdivision development and by private landowners who have had to depend on wells for water supply.

About 70 signatures have been obtained on the petitions, according to W. U. Barnes, Utah Construction Company official and former manager of the Moraga Company.

Troop 200 of Orinda will stage its annual fund raising drive tomorrow between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Forty-two members of the troop, whose ages range from 11 to 13, hope to enlist the aid of the residents of Orinda by being given the opportunity to do odd jobs, such as mowing lawns, cutting weeds and washing cars.

Any resident of Orinda who wishes to help in this project and at the same time have some much needed odd jobs done for them that they have been neglecting, can arrange for workers by calling the numbers listed here. The charge is to be 50 cents per hour, with a minimum of two hours.

Scouts from all over Orinda are members of Troop 200, with the main concentration of membership being in the Sleepy Hollow, Moraga Estates, Orchard Road and Crestview Drive areas.

To obtain workers, call any of the following telephone numbers: Mr. Sutliffe, CL 4-2626; Mr. Ammen, CL 4-5313; Mr. Bowles, CL 4-2110, or Mr. Williams, CL 4-5353.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Some glad, some sad, some mad

TWO YEARS AGO, while working on a rummange sale, Orindan, Charlotte Chapple (that gal who decorates and designs almost daily) was sad, sad, SAD she discovered the loss of an emerald from her diamond ring setting. And altho' she figured it as lost forever, BUT GOOD, she never quite gave up looking, looking and never shunned the slightest glint of green.

Last week, that eternal watchfulness paid off. For there in the gravel of the road, right at the threshold of her hillside steps, and not even the worse for time or the elements, the same SHREVE emerald she'd tho't lost forever that long time ago!

DUMB ANIMAL DEPT? Another matron was MAD, MAD, MAD that for several dairy deliveries she'd been shortchanged on her milk. At least only two cartons were there where FIVE should have been. Ready to call her milkman on the porch carpet, she ret'd home Friday to find the FULL order resting on the porch. Lady went into the house, disengaged herself of shopping parcels, sat down to have a cup of coffee, and glanced out the window JUST IN TIME to see one of the neighborhood canines cautiously stealing (but literally!) up her stepping stones. WITH a carton of milk between his jaws. And right under her nose, too, for another qt. had already been got off with, just min. before. Lady being a Dog Lover, had herself a good laugh, but from now on, milkman's orders read "PUT ALL MILK INSIDE." Perhaps other paper carton-patrons should take heed!

MAD, SAD, TOO BAD! The younger members of the Orinda Park Pool are circulating petitions to appeal the return of their favorite 5-cent summer treat of fudgesicles and popsicles which are missing since the advent of the automatic candy and soda machines which have replaced the homey Canteen this seanson. Mothers are hollering, too . . . for the legwork required to assist the younger fry in reaching the high levers on the dime dispensaries (the ONLY FIVE-cent items being gum & peanuts), NOT to mention the mama's concern over the more quickly-depleted allowances.

Picture hats belong at garden parties

A GRINNING TERRA-COTTA GNOMELIKE creature, looking like a real live elf, greeted guests arriving for the Enchanted Hills Garden Tea held that ONE fair day, May 15, at the attractive Owl Hill Ct. home of the George Jacksons . . . The soothing sound of the waterfall splashing down the hillside of the oriental-type garden was a pleasant relief from the persistent rainy weather . . . The hostess, Marguerite, introducing her attractive mother, Mrs. William Gore over from Skyline Blvd. in Oakland . . . Kitty Gillivan an early arrival, filling her station wagon FULL of primroses and plants for her Camino Don Miguel garden . . . Rita Bowersox, well-known lady lecturer, charming a rapt audience, interspersing her MUM talk w/humorous anecdotes.

PICTURE HATS PREDOMINANT in the crowd . . .A frothy flowered straw for Helen Moore who was showing Maragaret Bateman and a group of friends the handpointed Swedish modern balsa wood bird from Podesta & Baldocchi . . . Sue Goldsmith in navy, well-shaded by a pink tulle hat, telling of her family's (last wknd) jaunt to Disneyland.

WHITE GLOVED TRIO . . . Audrey Gregory and Nancy Ault arriving w/Dorothy Bentley who had only to carry her "climberrose" prize to the house next door where she lives . . . Evie Hopper making a plant sale to Mary Christiansen, SHE in another wide-brimmed chapeau.

AGAINST A BACKGROUND of Japanese lanterns, parasols, pastel balloons . . . Maureen Hudachek and Lois Pixley w/Lefty Kilpatrick purchasing a pair of decorated garden gloves . . . THESE, inspirational, pinned to a clotheline in front of a clever poem "GARDEN IS HARDENING," written and framed on the fence by Jan Soubielle who worked on decorations. (The poem we'll share w/you when column space allows!)

SISTERS OF THE SOD . . . Kay Gordon and Emma Usinger, both in pink, picking out some pelargoniums . . . Lola Dyer introducing June Philbrick, newcomer to Valley Dr. from Seattle . . . Fae Smith and Evelyn Roberts pouring coffee and tea at a long pink table . . . Mildred Ramsey carrying HER plant-buys home, just across the street . . . and Barbara Wayne in a bouffant "little girl" dress, satin-sashed in shocking pink, pleased w/her prize of a child's garden toolset . . . Chalotte Chapple, Sylvia Cox, late arrivals from the Orinda Art Center Tea, which was held same afternoon in the gardens of the Paul Harley home where the rhododendrons were running rampant w/colorful bloom.

From Bacchus to Beethoven

Sailing, sailing, away from the bounding'main'

OVER ON LAV VEGAS Rd, Dave and Joann Brunson will pass dips and chips to crowd that incls Connie and David Hary, over from Berkeley, Mardy and Bill Love from Lafayette, John and Liz Babcock and Ann and Mike Wood from our side of the tunnel. The Brusons, by the way, are MOST excited about plans for the Honolulu Race, the biennial sailing bout between LA and Honolulu which starts July 4 from the southern point . . . Dave will be on the crew o fthe QUEEN MAB, owned by his mother, Mrs. Clair Brunson of Malibu. Joann will accompany Dave to the south, then fly to the islands w/her mother-in-law to meet the Queen Mab and crew on arrival there, the family to "go native" in the islands for a week w/a stay planned at Kaiser's Hawaiian Vilage.

CORRECTION: The party we columned last week was given by Linden JR. organized in 1925 and NOT to be confused w/the original branch of LINDEN, which was formed in 1918! NOW GIRLS!

The floor at the Alameda O' Club was too crowded for the customary Anniversary Waltz . . . nevertheless, three local couples, Don and Betsy Minkler, John and Mary Maga and Frank and Becky Thomas managed a mean mamba when the trio reecntly celebrated their respective anniversaries. Proposing toasts during dinner to the "young"—marrieds, the Earl Vicars, Rodney Jenkses, their houseguests, HIS brother Dana and his lady who were visiting from Tulare for the weekend.

SUNNY YELLOW and clever-cartooned invitations have gone out in the mail by LOMBARDY BRANCH members bidding friends to sit, sip and sun at a children's Hospital benefit on Saturday, June 8, from 4-7 at the Snowberry Lane home of the Robert Hamptons, in Sleepy Hollow.

Letter to Editor

QUESTION PROGRESS

Dear Editor:

What does Mr. Leland mean by tremendous enlightened progress of public health in 50 years? What about these funds — cancer, heart, polio, cerebral palsy, mental disease, arthritis and many others? Does he call this progress?

Mr. Leland does not need fluorine — he needs an education on the subject of "nutrition."

My two boys for two years drank "distilled" water. Ages then 7 to 9, 9 to 11. Both boys do not have a cavity in their mouths. A fine dentist said he had never seen such healthy teeth in "all" his practice. He wanted to know what I was doing. I told him my family ate "live" foods, and not "dead" foods.

One good demonstration is worth a thousand arguments.

MRS. JOHN JEFFREY

Orindans Play Tonight with Youth Symphony

Five young Orinda musicians, all members of the East Bay Young People's Symphony Orchestra, will appear tonight in the orchestra's final concert of the season.

They are Miramonte freshmen Mario Guarneri, trumpet; Norita Jones, violin; Jeff Neighbor, string bass, and Bob Newman, trombone, and eighth grader Tom Brooks, clarinet.

Tonight's program is scheduled for 8:15 in the Berkeley High School auditorium and will feature a new ballet by the Raoul Pause Dancers, "A Russian Fairy Tale," to music by Shostakovich.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S Symphony is composed of musicians from many communities in the Bay region. The orchestra for nearly 20 years has met twice a week to play symphony music. Mrs. Jesica Marcelli has been its conductor for the past 17 years.

One of its most recent appearances was on April 28, for the Central Contra Costa Youth Concert series at Acalanes High School.

The orchestra has attained nationwide recognition, having performed on several national radio broadcasts and locally on television.

THE SHOSTAKOVICH "Ballet Suite No. 1," to which Pause has set his new ballet, will be heard for the first time in the East Bay at tonight's performance.

Also on the program is Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," in which Jane Morita, talented 15-year-old Berkeley pianist, will make her debut with the orchestra.

Other numbers to be played are Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream Overture" and two movements of Schubert's "Symphony No. 7."

Will Welcome Foreign Students

Two Orinda families will soon be welcoming Miramonte's first European teenagers to attend the high school under the international scholarship program of the American Field Service.

Coming in August to live with the Charles F. Ericksons of 31 Donna Maria Way for the school year will be a girl from Sweden. Mrs. Erickson is president of the Orinda Mothers Club.

The Robert W. Browns of 9 Orchard Court will have as a new member of their family a boy from Germany.

Going to Europe this summer as part of the program, Alan Hewitt will visit Greece and Ernie Fox will spend the summer in Germany. Both are students at Acalanes.

The Orinda branch of the American Field Service will hold a party Sunday, 3 to 5 p.m., for the three foreign students who have been attending Acalanes High School this year under the AFS program, and who will soon leave for their homes in Europe.

The party will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Shapiro, 18 La Vuelta, Orinda.

At the gathering official announcement will be made of the two Orinda homes which will host students from Europe for the 1957-58 school year.

Weekends are the most dangerous time to be on U.S. highways. In 1956, more than 56 per cent of all fatalities occurred on Friday, Saturdays and Sundays.

Huttons Leave For New Orleans

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland Hutton of Orinda left recently for a trip to New Orleans.

They planned to stay at the Roosevelt Hotel, where they were to be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klingan of Warren, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oakley of Orinda were to be in New Orleans at the same time.

Key System Carmen OK Negotiators to Strike

Key System carmen voted to empower their negotiating committee to call a strike, if the stalled discussions are not settled before the contract deadline tonight.

Meanwhile, the Contra Costa-Alameda Transit District found nothing but trouble in its efforts to obtain some kind of substitute transportation if the carmen walk out.

THE CONTRA COSTA County Board of Supervisors met with state officials in an effort to hold up a $750,000 emergency loan from the state for rental of bus and train facilities.

The supervisors moved to nullify a bill already passed by the legislature which permits the transit district to borrow money immediately and repay the loan when tax money should become available July 1.

The transit district board met last night to discuss negotiations with Key System relative to an agreement for district operations and on the possibility of obtaining funds.

ONE PROPOSAL was made that the San Francisco Municipal Railway take over operations of the bridge trains as an emergency measure. The proposal was turned down on grounds that the city-owned transit system was operating at a loss and could not afford to take another losing position.

Union officials stated that ample notice will be given to the public of any strike call, to permit commuters to make necessary arrangements for car pools or some other form of transportation.

Robert K. Barber, vice chairman of the transit district, stated he felt it would be very difficult to borrow money for the district from any bank since the legality of the district is being questioned by the Contra Costa Transit Council.

THE GROUP is seeking the exclusion of Contra Costa County from the two county district.

Governor Knight signed into law two measures designed to facilitate operation of the transit district.

Both bills, authored by Sen. Arthur Breed Jr. (R. Oakland), are emergency measures which take effect immediately.

One will permit the district to incur indebtedness not exceeding the equivalent of five cents per $100 of assessed valuation of the district, until it becomes eligible for tax funds, without a two thirds vote of the electorate.

The other validates organization, boundaries and activities of the district, but does not validate any question which may be under litigaiton.

Level of Education -- Key Factor for High Schools

(Editor's note: This is the third in a series of articles on the secondary schools in the Acalanes High School District—their problems, programs and costs. This article is concerned with the question, "What standard of quality shall the high school program have?")

The Acalanes High School District Board has always operated on the theory that the parents and the community want a good standard of education—not an average or poor one.

The board, as written in its policy statement, is committed "to maintain educational institutions of high standards at the secondary level which recognize the needs and differences of individual students and provide the best educational opportunities consistent with the amount of funds available."

"At a time when there is a general teacher shortage and the demand for secondary instructors is increasing faster than the supply, enrollment growth of about 500 pupils yearly requires that the district hire approximately 20 teachers a year in addition to replacing those who leave," Trustee William B. Freeman points out.

"To attract good teachers the district maintains a salary schedule slightly better than the county average.

"BECAUSE THE STANDARD of education is directly tied to the teacher, a continued effort has been made to keep the quality of teaching high.

"To do this it is necessary to attract and hold superior teachers. Only fully credentialed instructors with a maximum of university training (and not those with emergency or provisional credentials) are hired. District teachers average more than five and one-half years of preparation for their jobs."

Freeman states that the number of teachers necessary to staff a high school depends on two factors:

1. The curriculum (kinds and numbers of courses) offered.

2. A pupil teacher-ratio desirable for good instruction (the district ratio is currently one teacher per 24 pupils).

REGARDING the curriculum, Freeman says:

"To meet pupil needs the district offers a variety of courses in addition to those required by the state. These courses are thoroughly considered by the faculty, administration and the board and are approved on the following bases:

"1. The practical application of the course or its worth to the present and future needs of the student.

"2. The requirements which must be met at higher levels of education (future college, commercial or industrial training).

"3. The contribution of the course to the individual student's mental, physical and social development, and the development of responsible self-supporting citizens."

OTHER COMPONENTS that determine the quality of the educational program, aside from the curriculum itself and a suitable ratio of pupils per teacher, include, according to Freeman, the importance of having competent administrators who can make intelligent decisions in the light of the best educational practice and theory—administrators who can organize and operate schools, help select competent teachers and recommend and develop the best curriculum to meet the needs of the children.

Books, equipment and other services are all part of the picture too, the trustee declares.

"There is no one yardstick by which the standard of the educational program can be measured," Freeman stresses.

"However, it is a matter of record that graduates of Acalanes High School have consistently made better than average college grades.

"IN FEBRUARY Stanford University, in a three-year study, reported that Acalanes graduates have the highest grades at the university in comparison with the 14 other public and private schools with 30 or more graduates at Palo Alto.

"The record at the University of California and other colleges and the success of graduates who choose commercial or industrial activities rather than college are good, too."

Moderate savings might be made by increasing the ratio of pupils per teacher, teachers' salaries (which make up approximately 65 per cent of the total operation budget) might be kept low, a restricted curriculum could be offered or administrative services might be curtailed, Freeman states.

"These things are possible," he continues, "but only at the sacrifice of seriously compromising the educational standards of our children.

"ONE OF THE BIGGEST factors in local school costs is heavily increasing enrollments, which of and by themselves create the real bulk of increasing school costs.

"This keeps pushing the tax rate up, since our assessed valuation is increasing only half as fast as our enrollment, percentage-wise.

"More state aid from taxes not based on property will help alleviate the problem of the local taxpayer."

(The next articles in the series will explore more fully the problem of operating costs.—The Editor.)

Summer Recreation Plan Seeks $1300 in Donations

To assure the success of the 13th annual Lafayette Summer Recreation Program, June 24-August 2, a drive is now under way for approximately $1300 in donations.

If that goal is reached, according to Ted Collins, director of summer recreation, and Russell Iufft, chairman of the Lafayette Recreation Board, the program will be self-sufficient and will not have to rely for help on local school district funds.

Being sought are contributions from businesses, improvement associations, service clubs and individuals.

And the Lafayette, Vallecito, Montecito, Burton and Springhill PTAs and the Stanley Parents Club, in bulletins being sent home via the children, are asking their members to contribute $1 each.

THE PARENT-ORGANIZATION members are asked to pin a dollar to the bulletin and to send it to the school office or teacher.

Other contributors are asked by Collins and Hufft to make out their checks to the Lafayette School District, writing "Summer Recreation Fund" on the check or on an accompanying note, and to mail the check to the Lafayette School District at the Stanley School, 3477 School Street, Lafayette.

ON THE RECREATION Board, a policy group dealing with the Summer Recreation Program, are representatives of the local school-parent organizations (one from each) and the grammer school principals.

"The Lafayette Summer Recreation Program was started in 1945, at PTA urging," Collins said this week. "The outdoor-games and indoor-crafts activities have been expanded year by year.

Hufft reported that at the May 6 Recreation Board session it was agreed that a concerted effort would be made to raise enough money in donations this year—Through parent-organizations, service clubs, other groups and businesses—so that the Lafayette School District would not have to use its general funds for the purpose.

"This means that about $1300—approximately twice as much as last year—must be raised in donations this year, in order for that goal to be reached," the chairman pointed out.

The school district is authorized by law to levy the 5-cent community service tax rate for recreational purposes. Collins added that this tax is used for year-round recreation needs and for use of school facilities by the community in general.

THE SUMMER Recreation Program budget for 1957, as approved by the Recreation Board, comes to $5650. This includes $5300 in salaries for a staff of 19 (one supervisor and 18 directors) and $300 for supplies.

Blakeman Is Sentenced on Reduced Charge

Seth Blakeman of 3333 St Mary's Road, Lafayette, pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of assault and battery against a 14 year-old Walnut Creek boy. Superior Court Judge Hugh Donovan imposed a $500 cash fine on the defendant and sentenced him to one year in the county jail but suspended the sentence on condition that Blakeman permanently leave Contra Costa County within 30 days.

The charge had been reduced from one of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, on which he had been tried before a jury in Judge Donovan's court in Martinez in late March.

This trial ended April 1 when the judge granted a defese motion for a mistrial to be declared on grounds of prejudicial cross-examination by Deputy District Attorney David J. Levy.

ON APRIL 8 Judge Homer Patterson set last Monday as the day for hearing of Defense Attorney Robert Collins' motion for dismissal of the charge on grounds of double jeopardy.

Following last Monday's action, Levy explained that Collins had made the request for the reduction of the charge and that this request had been concurred in by the complainants, the boy's parents, in a letter to the court suggesting the defendant be allowed to plead guilty to the reduced charge of assault and battery, provided he leave the county.

Last week Deputy District Attorney Charles Hemmings informed The Sun that he could not find the matter scheduled for last Monday.

ASKED ABOUT this, Levy stated this week that Hemmings had probably been looking at the regular trial calendar, which would not show the hearing date for a defense plea.

Date for a new jury trial was set April 8 by Judge Patterson for next Tuesday, but Levy said this week that last Monday's action removed that trial date from the court calendar.

Other Supervisors Balk at Gambling Law Says Taylor

"A gambling ordinance has not been enacted in Contra Costa County because the other supervisors say they have no problems," Supervisor Ray Taylor told a Monday night meeting of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council.

After the meeting Taylor admitted to The Sun that he had made a similar statement "about two years ago" when he had thought that there was only "one poker game in my district."

HE SAID THAT he was "disappointed" that a committee appointed by the board of supervisors had been unable to reach any decision on a county gambling ordinance.

The committee consisted of Sheriff Harry Brown, District Attorney Francis Collins, County Administrator Desmond Teeter and Supervisor Joseph Silva.

Taylor said that he had received "letters from individuals and organizations in his district" asking for a gambling ordinance. But he also stated that he had received a petition with 200 names favoring continuance of poker games.

"WHEN YOU HAVE four other supervisors who say there is no problem in their district, you just can't write an ordinance tomorrow," Taylor stated.

Taylor expressed himself in favor of an ordinance that would "at least include a time limit and other technical controls of poker games."

"I am hopeful we will get such an ordinance," he said.

Youthful Diamondmen Swing into Action June 3

The Lafayette Youth Association, announced this week that the baseball season for its 465 boys will commence on June 3.

By vote of all managers and coaches, it was decided that league play would start two weeks earlier this year in order to complete the season by mid-August. With final date of play slated for August 16, many parents and fans will have an opportunity to vacation prior to school opening in September.

June 9 has been designated as "Opening Day," with ceremonies to take place at Mattson Field. Further announcement will be made concerning activities to take place on that day.

AS ANNOUNCED last week, sponsors are still needed. Especially for those boys in the 13 through 15 age group. While sponsorship for the youngers boys has come forth, it is a greater task to get proper backing for the older ones. Why this should be, no one seems to know, but the association feels that a boy shouldn't become too old at the age of 13 to play baseball.

Actually, if any age group needs backing, this is it. These are the boys I am sure that the community should be concerned about. These are the kids who should be made proud of their community, and know that they have the backing of their community. In this regard, the association hopes to eventually encompass all boys of high school age in its organized recreation program. Certainly no one claims that such activities will in themselves curb delinquency.

There are those, nevertheless, who will give you a good argument that such programs do help. If you will look towards your larger cities, you will find police departments taking active interest in such program, as do American Legions, etc. In talking to many of the high school coaches in the area, this writer is firmly convinced that percentage-wise, the athletically minded youngster causes the least amount of community havoc.

IF ANYONE is interested in sponsorship, again let me encourage you to contact this writer at YE 5-1017.

As was done last year, season passes will be offered to all who wish to donate 50 cents. The boys themselves will be given the pasteboards to offer to their friends and neighbors. In this way, the boys are buying their own equipment and paying for the umpires. Too, it is hoped that if enough monies can be raised this year, benches for the parents and friends can be placed at Hageman Field.

Taxpayers Urge: 'No More Special Taxing Districts'

A three point program was approved and a call for economy in the county was made at the First Annual Contra Costa Taxpayers Conference in Martinez.

The county group, called together by the taxpayers association passed resolutions urging the county board of supervisors not to permit the establishment of any new special district unless absolutely necessary to the public health and safety.

They further urged the County Board of Education to call a conference of school officials to consider reducing the costs of pupil transportation, school construction, administration and purchasing.

Another resolution calls the attention of local government bodies to the study by all these bodies of the merits of establishing central service departments to combine functions such as mailing, purchasing and special clerical work and other departments engaged in maintenance, construction and plant upkeep.

J. Roy Holland, assistant general manager of the California Taxpayers Association informed the group that" . . . It is noted that Contra Costa County has increased at a faster rate than has the total for the state in tax levies for the past five years.

"Contra Costa County's total tax levies have increased 46.7 per cent during this five year period while the total for all of the counties of the state, for local governmental jurisdictions, has increased 52.4 per cent.

"The greatest increases have been for schools and special districts where the increase in the county is at a rate of half again as fast as the total for the state," said Holland.

Mental Health Bills By Doyle, Short Advance

Approved out of the social welfare committee Wednesday with a do pass recommendation was Asembly Bill 630 to provide community mental health clinics for cities and counties.

Authored by Assemblyman Donald Doyle (R-Lafayette), the bill was accompanied by AB 2736, a financing measure for the bill.

A companion measure to AB 630 is Senate Bill 244 by Senator Alan Short (D-Stockton).

The Short bill will be heard first, Doyle said, and the final measure, if passed, will bear the names of both the assembly and senate authors.

New Flood Control Policy Considered Now Under Way

Subdividers will not necessarily be responsible for flood control costs under a new county policy now being considered by the Board of Supervisors.

A present "use it or return it" provision on flood control deposits made by subdividers will be changed from one year to 10 under terms of the proposed policy.

CARL C. RICH, chief county engineer, and Charles Hemmings, deputy district attorney, have been instructed to prepare an outline of a formula that will be used to repay the subdividers' share of flood control costs.

The board wil hear this proposal at 2 p.m. Tuesday and a public hearing will consider the matter at the same time on June 1.

Under the present system a fee based on acreage is collected from each subdivider in a flood zone.

Subdividers are required to deposit the cost of outlet channels with a special district and to install in-tract dainage structures.

IF A FLOOD control work is not completed within one year, the deposited fee must be returned.

In the Walnut Creek area residents have opposed formation of some special flood control zones, thereby halting control projects under the present system.

Infant Girl Dies; Tests Are Ordered

Eight month old Candy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin, 1554 Riviera Avenue, Walnut Creek, died suddenly early Sunday morning, and laboratory tests were ordered to determine the cause of death.

The infant girl was resting with her father at the home of a neighbor when she died. The father awoke at about 2 a.m. to find that she was not breathing. He called a doctor and the fire department.

Mrs. Martin, according to police reports, had brought the baby to the father's side earlier, and returned to her house.

Tracks Must Be Saved; Rapid Transit Planned

There is a bill in the Legislature at the moment which would provide for a $35 million modernization of the Bay Bridge, including removal of the Key System rails and conversion into a freeway of the upped and lower decks.

There is no question that something must be done to cut the present congestion on the Bay Bridge, but is removal of the rails a wise part of the procedure?

Admittedly, it would permit the installation of additional traffic lanes, but wouldn't the added commuter traffic, including buses and trucks, add tremendously to the congestion?

The Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District is definite in its desires that the rails should not be removed at the present time. We agree with them.

Those in favor of this phase of the modernization point out that the rails are worn out and that it would be foolish to replace them when rail transit as provided by Key System is doomed anyway.

This may be true, but aren't we putting the cart before the horse when we rip out the only form of non-auto transit we have?

This county, and the East Bay counties have given a lot of support to the rapid transit measures, and we should be interested in what happens, because we are going to be paying for our share of it.

There are thousands of commuters who daily make their way to the East Bay and even to San Francisco from this area, and what is done is going to affect them drastically.

Something has got to be done about rapid transit. But until we know what is going to be done . . . until we know which way we are going and have definite plans and an achievable goal, we should not rip up the Key System tracks on the Bay Bridge.

It is becoming increasingly important that the counties of the Bay Area stop playing politics with regard to rapid transit and get down to brass tacks.

When they do this, we can stop worrying about situations which are continually arising . . . like the Key System tracks . . . and we could know exactly where we stand.

It is obvious that the Southern Crossing is not feasible. Let's find the right solution and go ahead!

The Staff Corner

What! Another Meeting

By Dick Osborn

("The Staff Corner" is a new feature of The Sun's editorial page and will appear each week under the by-line of a different member of the editorial staff.)

Do you enjoy spending an evening with a voracious group of crusaders, out to change the world?

Do you relish the opportunity to put on your shining armor, polish up the shild, sharpen the lance and CHARGE!

Do you feel at home only when you must raise your voice about 20 decibels in order to make the slightest impression on the cacaphony surrounding a conference table?

Do you get your kicks from disrupting what might be an organized meeting and turning it into a shambles that even Roberts Rules of Order could never untangle?

Possibly, then, you have been attending one of the meetings of your neighborhood improvement association.

Or more likely, you attended one "about five years ago" and came to the conclusions that "that bunch certainly cannot do anything for me.

Of course, you may be right. There is certainly a point of view that looks at the problem this way.

"I've got what I've got because I've gone out and worked for it, and nobody's done anything for me yet. I pay my taxes, and I take care of my yard, and I'm darned if anybody's going to tell me what to do, or when to do it.

"I moved out here to stay in the country, and as far as I'm concerned that improvement association bunch is just one more piece of government. We don't need it . . . we didn't ask for it, and darned if I'm going to have anything to do with it.

"If that bunch were on the ball they'd see that Jones down the street cleaned up that yard of his. That's something local. Why they are always traipsing up to Martinez or screaming about planning and zoning beats me. Heck, what the county boys want to do, they're going to do. You can't tell me this little bunch is going to beat city hall."

Of course, if you feel this way, it might be better if you stayed home from your local improvement association meetings . . . I'm sure the president would appreciate it . . . and probably the directors, too.

And it is a fine attitude to maintain if you like high taxes, and really don't care about your water bills, where the new roads will be located, who's going to patch up the holes in the road you've got, or who is going to see that you don't find a big duplex standing next to your little rose-covered cottage.

Let's consider what some of these improvement clubs, or homeowners groups, actually do, and whether or not they are worthwhile . . . This subject can start quite an argument in certain circles.

Time and again improvement groups have served the exceedingly important function of acting as "watchdogs" on the myriad governmental agencies which provide services to the average homeowner.

They check on sewer easements, work out formation of special districts, keep an eye on building permit applications in the county offices, etc.

On the other hand, they freguently become pressure fronts for a minority group, and thus do not represent the people they pretend to serve.

What can be done about this . . . what can make improvement associations good instead of bad?

The answer is simple. You must participate. An improvement association cannot go off the deep end if it actively represents every single homeowener under its jurisdiction, for the simple reason that if it honestly represents everybody, it is doing its job.

What the actual group wants may not be right in the long run, but at least it is not the fault of the improvement association if the majority wish is carried out.

So next time you hear somebody comment on the faults and shortcoming, of improvement associations in general, stop and ask yourself if they might be talking about yours.

And if they are, could it be your fault? After all, if you don't vote, you haven't got a gripe when you don't like the outcome of the election.

What do you think?

If Asparagus is Lost... Find Lettuce in Martinez

I was invited to attend the East Contra Costa Junior College Norsemen Awards show last week. This is an annual affair. They entitled this year's production "T. V. Guise" and they had guise and also gals—what gals!

I was delighted to attend. I have been trying to get to college for forty-one years. I would have made it, I think, if I hadn't been expelled from school while in the second grade. A teacher caught me shaving in the boys restroom.

Norsemen have always been nice people. Lief Ericson was the first to discover America. The reason he made the trip was to find Minnesota so that Longfellow could write "Hiawatha."

PRICELESS QUOTE

"Don't hold that flame too close, Yul Brynner!"

June is National Diary Month. Residents of Cal Water area don't have to worry about watered milk. It would cost more to water the milk than it would to serve it straight from the bossy!

AFTERTHROUGHT

Ranchers have been complaining about the confiscation of fighting cocks because they lose asparagus. Maybe, if the belligerent roosters were introduced in Martinez, the taxpayers wouldn't lose so much lettuce!

Legislature Must Finance School Bill, Knight Says

By LOU CANNON

Governor Goodwin Knight told a publishers' press conference last Friday that he "fully intends to veto" the state-aid-to-schools bill unless financing proposals are forthcoming from the legislature.

The Governor said he was reiterating a position that he has taken since the outset of the legislative session.

"NO SCHOOL BILL will be approved by me," said Knight, "unless financing requirements are included."

The California chief executive declined, however, to specifically endorse a proposal sponsored by the California Teachers Association to raise the revenue by means of a cigarette and beer tax.

In Contra Costa County, the Mt. Diablo Unified District approved school bonds last Friday and became eligible to receive state aid if the present school bill, Assembly Bill 3045, is signed into law.

HOWEVER, THE governmental efficiency committee of the State Senate has removed financing provisions from the bill, an action that has received criticism from assemblymen of both parties.

Hearings were held last night before the assembly's revenue and taxation committee on two revenue raising measures introduced by the school bill's author, Republican Ernest Geddes of Los Angeles.

Both of these bills, AB 3046 and AB 3047, would raise the cigarette and beer tax as originally proposed by the CTA.

IF NO TAXES are provided to raise financing funds for the bill, the money would come from the state's "rainy day" reserve funds.

Regardless of the outcome of the financing proposals, a cut in the $65 million bill has been predicted by both assemblymen and senators.

Donald Doyle, Republican assemblymen from Lafayette, said that the final bill would be "about $49 or $50 million."

And in the senate, James McBride, Ventura Democrat, has said thatt he cut could go as low as $35 million, "thought that's about the limit."

College to Hold Spring Contests

Spring Day will start at 2 p.m. today at East Contra Costa Junior College.

The annual affair will feature a student-faculty pie throwing contest and a beard judging contest.

Sophomore-freshman competition has a perpetual trophy at stake. Dashes, a relay, football and sofball throws and a tug of war will be held.

Letters to The Editor

BUS SOLUTION?

Dear Editor:

As I was reading the May 10 issue wherein you interviewed people regarding their views on commuter buses in the face of the court approval of the ICC granting of Greyhound's petition to split the commuter service into a separate company, a thought occurred to me.

One of the reasons of high expense of commuter buses is the fact that there is normally only one pay load each direction each day for each bus. The rest of the bus sits idle.

The same situation is true of school buses. They have a concentrated use to pick up students in the morning and then sit idle until they take them home.

Is there a possible solution, even though it might involve shifting school hours to start somewhat later, to combine commuter bus service and school bus service so that least the drivers making the first commuter runs could get back to the school areas in time to make the school runs?

Then in the afternoon the late commuter buses could make the school children's delivery to their home before going to San Francisco for a pickup of pay load commuters returning to this area.

If such a thing were possible it would appear that here would be two major beneficiaries: first, the commuters possibly would end up with a lower fare; and second, there might be a siginificant saving to the school districts.

On the latter point it is possible that there would be no reduction in taxes for the school districts, but there might be more money available for necessary teachers and other programs.

DOGS ON LOOSE

Dear Editor,

Please publish more on the restraining of dogs.

Perhaps more people will gain courage and we can organize in order to get an ordinance passed.

I understand from Judge Thomson's office that only by petitioning can we pass the ordinance which will protect us from THE DOG.

We at Eichlers were surveyed for our views on the dog packs fighting at school bus stops, the wrecking of shrubs and trees, et al. I hear that more than 90 per cent of the residents of the tract voted for restraint.

But we have no means of enforcing restraint because the law is not on our side.

We have two animals across the street from which we are allowed the run of the neighborhood. They belong to a local realtor who has no regard whatever for the damage they do to shrubs and the filth they deposit everywhere.

Why, I ask, must we, the neighbors, have to bury his dogs droppings to keep down the flies and to keep our kids from tracking the stuff all over our rugs?

I have no qualms whatever about signing my name, and if we'd all be a little more brave, even to the extent of organizing and petitioning in our various areas perhaps we could get an ordinance passed.

All in favor . .

(Mrs.) Anne Willmer

Dear Editor:

Upon the conclusion of the Easter Seal campaign, we wish to take special note of the fine cooperation and assistance you gave in responding to our requests.

You have provided an important public service and it is deeply appreciated by us and by every member of our Board.

With this cooperation, you have assisted us in making our program better known and understood in the county.

Sincerely,
Senator George Miller Jr.

Chairman.

SCHOOL BONDS

While I could not agree with your stand on the school bond and tax issue I do want to thank you for making it possible for the opposition to state their views.

Board Supports Elections Bill

Assembly Bill 3624 designed to reduce school trustee elections to every other year, was supported last week in a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors.

The bill has been proposed by the County Taxpayers Association as an economy move.

Harry Morrison, executive secretary of the taxpayers group, contended that the county would save $50,000 per year based on reports from the elections office.

Under The Sun

Let's Talk About Kids: Accidents, Crimes, Jacks

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

My most difficult task this past week was promoting and administering a "Jack" tournament at Janet's birthday party last Sunday. Believe me, it is no small task to pair off fourteen (repeat 14) cute, little eight-year-old girls and run a tournament.

Ultimate result: I finally decided that bingo was more fun, more girls won prizes and less shattering to my nerves.

Speaking of kids — Let's don't kill them at an early age. You've heard it before but remember: Don't leave garden insecticides, fungicides, poisons, or other dangerous household products where your children or your neighbors' children can get at them.

Here's what happened:

Just recently a two-year-old local girl toddled up to her father late in the afternoon and complained of "something burning" in her tummy. Father asked her to show him what was the matter and discovered she had drunk some deadly insecticide, which he had just taken out of a locked cabinet preparatory to spraying the garden.

The ending is happy. She was rushed to the hospital and is reportedly okey — serious but not critical. It could have been death.

And a bicycle story:

While we're being scared, read this story: An eight-year-old local boy was riding merrily down the street, then suddenly made a left-hand turn — across the path of an auto. He could have been killed — fortunately he suffered minor but painful injuries.

Incidentally, The Sun says hats off to P.T.A. and other parent groups for their bicycle safety campaigns and programs.

Poison oak and children seem to go together. There's a dandy little pamphlet put out by the County Health Department. To get a copy write — Health Department, Contra Costa County, P.O. Box 871, Martinez.

A serious problem

Now an unpleasant item about our children:

The FBI recently reported that major crimes last year increased by 13.3 per cent over 1955 — and that nearly 46 per cent of the increase were caused by juveniles under 18 in urban areas.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has been advocating publicizing the names of youths who commit major crimes. Other law enforcement authorities disagree strongly.

Most newspapers withhold names of juveniles but a nationwide debate has started within the newspaper industry on the problem. Some papers are now printing names of the juveniles when they think it is warranted.

This is a tough problem for newspapers — parents and the community. What do you think?

Wayne Bailey Will Instruct In Chicago, Ill.

R. Wayne Bailey of Walnut Creek, executive secretary of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, will be one of the faculty members at a real estate seminar to be held tomorrow in Chicago.

The occasion will be the 14th annual seminar of real estate board administration, sponsored by the National Association of Real Estate Boards and its Secretaries Council.

Ash Bug Still Is Local Pest

A survey just completed in the central part of the county shows that residents are still being troubled by the ash bug, according to a report from Agricultural Commissioner A. L. Seeley.

Seeley said that the insects were found even in areas where the neighborhood had gotten together and carried out a concentrated spray program.

Investigation showed that a number of young ash bugs were present and this would indicate that probably we have a new hatch of insects to worry about.

People are cautioned to be on the lookout for the curling of the fully developed leaves and the burned effects on the new terminal twig growth as this is an indication that the insect is still present.

Malathion is the recommended spray material to be used in controlling this insect.

Demos to Hear CDC Speaker At Womens Club

Cranston is serving his third term as president of the CDC. He served as chief of the foreign language division of the OWI, and his book, "Killing the Peace," was a non-fiction best-seller a decade ago.

He has been instrumental in promoting the Democratic club movement in California.

Cranston's address will be the feature of a fund-raising potluck dinner sponsored by the East Contra Costa Women of Walnut Creek, North Concord, Concord Valley, Danville and Vine Hill Democratic clubs. The dinner will begin at 7 p.m. Cranston will speak at 9 p.m. Tickets, at $3.50 per person or $5 per couple, may be purchased at the door or by calling Gene Hastings at MU 2-9180.

Mosaics & Wine to Offer 'That Golden Opportunity'

A "golden opportunity" — to taste wines which have won gold medals for quality at the California State Fair and at the Los Angeles County Fair — will be offered next weekend at the Valley Art Center's spring benefit, "Mosaics and Wine," an outdoor event scheduled June 2, at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Colin, 1266 Happy Valley Road in Lafayette.

The famed mosaic artist Louisa Jenkins of Big Sur has been added to the list of West Coast notables in the field who will exhibit at the unusual show, to be held from 2 until 5 p.m. Admission will be by invitation, and only a few bids are still available, according to Mrs. Richard Ward of Lafayette, invitations chairman.

A torso made of pieces of gold set in colored plastic, along with an outdoor cocktail table created in translucent metal mosaic will be shown by Nikos Bel-Jon of San Francisco.

Brilliant transparent colored glass mosaics will be exhibited by Bella Feldman of Berkeley. Pebble mosaic pieces also will be featured, Mrs. Robert Condon of Walnut Creek, mosaic procurement chairman, announced today.

Twenty wines, from the pale Pinot Chardonnay, through the Gamay, to the aristocrat of the reds, Pinot Noir, will be presented at "Mosaics and Wine" by the Beringer, Concannon, Cresta Blanca and Digardi wineries of California, J. Gordon Ainsworth, general chairman of the event, said today.

French bread and cheese, traditional palate-cleansers in the art of wine-tasting, will be offered.

Members of the social committee of the Valley Art Center met Monday at the home of Mrs. William Ornduff in Lafayette to complete plans for the party. Hosts and hostesses to receive the more than 500 guests from throughout the Diablo Valley will be appointed by Mrs. Lyle Lund of Lafayette.

A limited number of invitations may be obtained from Mrs. Ward at 3380 St. Mary's Road in Lafayette, telephone AT 3-2331; from Mrs. Arthur Wagstaff, Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, telephone YE 4-8361 and from Mrs. Ainsworth, 73 La Cuesta, telephone CL 4-2192. Social chairman for "Mosaics and Wine" will be Mrs. E. F. Cardin Jr., of Lafayette.

Distinguished work by the Valley Art Center's students in mosaics also will be shown at the wine-tasting. Three new classes will begin in June, with advance registration necessary through Mrs. Rawlings Simon, 4141 Los Arabis Road in Lafayette, telephone CL 4-2720. No prior art training is necessary, Mrs. Simon said.

Members of the art center's social committee planning the show and wine-tasting June 2 include the Mesdames John Ellis, George D. Simpson, Howard Stafford, Frank Malley, George Monheit, Harold Powell and Philip Merrill, in addition to the committee heads named.

"PARISIAN" will be the flavor of the "Parisian Potpouri," a fashion show and dance to be held tomorrow night at 8 by the Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu. Gala Soiree to Feature Calypso Capers for 600

West Indian drums herald the approach of the Art League Costume Ball June 8, when Diablo Country Club will be the scene of Calypso capers for 600 guests and members of the Art League of the East Bay.

League members have been busy for weeks drawing, cutting, pasting, painting and stapling such exotic things as six foot glittering birds, a giant mural and oversized jet-black flies with sparkling lace wings to hover realistically over baskets filled with bananas, pineapples and papayas.

Gaily decorated bird cages, swaths of bright-hued fishnetting, a profusion of flowers and at least one live donkey will help to put members and their guests in a Caribbean mood.

Colorful tickets simulating a tourist guide book announce the Number 1 and Number 2 Guides, Mrs. Warren Hudson and her co-chairman, Mrs. Davis C. Dutton, Jr.

Banana Boat Bossmen are Mrs. Oliver Gardner, in charge of decorations, Mrs. Marshall Lasher Jr., reservations, Mrs. Fenner Fuller, Judges and Prizes, Mrs. Robert Forbes, Grand March and Mrs. Daniel Defenbacher, publicity.

Mrs. Alfred Evans has arranged the music for the ball, comprised of a trio of Calypso singers to wander among the guests during the cocktail hour and the orchestra of Dick Dildine to play for dancing from 8:30 on.

After a dinner of Jamaican chicken, Fenner Fuller will M.C. the Grand March, judged this year by Miss Grace Mann, ballerina, Joseph William Knowland Jr., and Glenn A. Sessels, professor of art at the California College of Arts & Crafts and the University of California and a prominent painter of this area.

Prizes for costumes will be decided in three categories — Calypso theme, Originality, and Humor. Additional prizes will be donated by the California College of Arts & Crafts.

Proceeds of the ball help to finance the Art League sponsored free art classes for children at the Junior Center of Arts in Mosswood Park, a program inaugurated in 1940 for the purpose of developing and encouraging artistic and creative expression at an early age.

Evergreen Vines Provide Beauty, Companionship

By THE GARDNER

SUMMERTIME in California means outdoor living time.

All over the state families will be eating, playing and relaxing in their backyards and on their patios while enjoying the companionship of summer blooming plants.

Among thhe loveliest of summer flowering plants are the evergreen vines that can be planted to give shade and protection from wind and beauty.

THE TRUMPET vines include a variety of flowering evergreens suitable for planting throughout most of California.

The Blood-Red Trumpet Vine (Phaedranthus Buccinatorius or Bignonia cherere) is a fast-growing plant with glossy deep green foliage and flowers in graduations from yellow to rose-red.

Once this vine is established, it's a strong, high-growing climber; plant it in the sun against a wall or high trellis. Prune each year to keep under control; feed and water generously.

VIOLET or pale lavender trumpets appear on the Violet Trumpet vine (Clytostoma Callistegiodes or Bignonia violacea) in early spring and the middle of summer.

Its foliage is a dark glossy green. The Violet Trumpet vine is strong-growing and needs support on a wall.

It can be grown in sun or part shade and should be treated as a perennial in colder climates.

THE BOUGAINVILLEA is one of the more popular of evergreen flowering vines.

Its height of blooms comes in July; there are varieties blooming in shades of purple, red, magenta, scarlet—all brilliant and eye-catching.

The Bougainvillea is strong-growing and will twine to 20 feet. Plant this vine against a warm wall; control it with pruning and feed generously.

ONE OF THE MOST fragrant flowering vines is the Gold Coast Jasmine (Jasmine dichomum), which grows rapidly in sun or part shade.

This Jasmine has thick, glossy leaves and fragrant clusters of white flowers are borne on the Italian Jasmine (Jasmine humile) from July to September. It will do well in sun or part shade; the willowy shoots reach to 20 feet and can be arched or trained as a shrub.

MASSES OF BRILLIANT blue bells cover the Australian Bluebell Creeper (Sollya Fusiformis) through most of the summer.

This vine grows as a low climber or trailing shrub and does well in full sun or part shade in coastal area, part shade inland.

It should be watered generously. Plant th Australian Bluebell Creeper in a pot or tub placed on a wall so its branches can spill down. It can also be attractively grown as a ground cover.

Checklist Gives Timely Advice

Your garden checklist offers the following advice:

1. A new chemical is available which will kill all types of grasses, including bermuda and quack grass. Just spray the foliage and your worries are over. Doesn't sterilize the soil, either.

2. Lawn moth damage can be controlled by the use of clhordane or dieldrin.

3. It is frequently desirable to thin Clematis armandi vines (Evergreen Clematis) after they finish their main spring bloom.

4. Some evergreen shrubbery can be pruned for shape at this time.

5. If you failed to plant tuberous begonia tubers earlier, it's still too late. Most nurseries are offering tuberous begonia seedlings or tubers now.

Area Children To See Indians Dance Tomorrow

Of particular interest to Contra Costa youngsters who study Indian cultures in school, American Indian families of the Intertribal Friendship House will offer authentic songs and dances tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Plymouth Hall, 3805 Piedmont Avenue, Oakland.

Featuring the Kiowa group from Oklahoma under the leadership of Burley Quoetone, the presentation will open with the Kiowa prayer and flag song and will include war dances and tribal chants, as well as ritual and story dances.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Quoetone, performers in the Kiowa group are Beverly Quoetone, 15; Mrs. Jack Poolow, D. K. Colety, Lone Wolf and Bear Cloud of the Cheyenne tribe, who will take part in the Kiowa portion of the program.

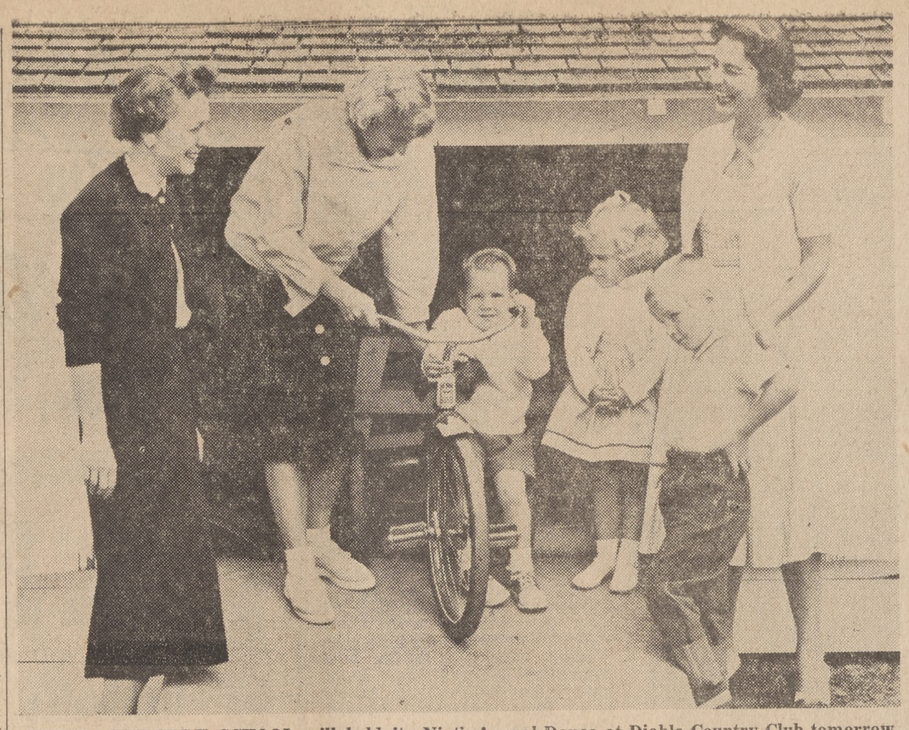
CHIEF Yellow Corn will head up the Acoma representation from New Mexico. Michael White Bear, 12, and Lawrence Little Corn, 10, the chief's son, will perform the hoop dance. William Leno, a favorite in the Bay Area, will appear with the Acomas.

Well known as a traveler and Indian educator, Chief Eagle Wing of the Klamath River Karuk tribe will tell legends of his people in song, story and dance.

CHARLES STORM, who is part Cheyenne, will act as master of ceremonies.

Cofee and soft drinks will be served with the traditional Indian fried bread. Donations of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children 12 and under may be made at the door.

Several Girl Scout troops in Contra Costa County have worked with Intertribal Friendship House on community service projects. The organization is sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee.



ORINDA NURSERY SCHOOL will hold its Ninth Annual Dance at Diablo Country Club tomorrow (for adults, of course). Youngsters at the nursery school will benefit from the proceeds. This scene at the "bike house" at the nursery school's quarters at the Orinda Community Church depicts the sort of facilities which organized support and activity by adults make possible. Left to right are Mrs. Thomas L. Fitch, dance chairman; Mrs. Gale DeMartini, ticket chairman for the Moraga side of Orinda; Skeeter DeMartini, Leslie Ann Fitch, Chris Gregg and Mrs. Godfrey Gregg, ticket chairman for the Village side of Orinda. —Sun photo by Mattson

Local Students Win Place On Berkeley Youth Group

Local students share the unique distinction of being the first string quartet to be accepted by the Berkeley Young People's Symphony Orchestra. They competed with more than 150 students from the entire Bay Area.

The quartet has been playing together for only one school semester under the direction of Mrs. Charles Compton of Concord.

SEPTEMBER THEY applied for admission to the famous Berkeley Youth Symphony and the four were accepted by the orchestra's conductor, Mrs. Jessica Marchelli. The four members of the string ensemble were among the 70 accepted for the past fall and winter season.

Bill Davis, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Davis of Antioch, is the first violinist. He has been studying for the past 2½ years, and plans to make music his career. He is a seventh grade student in the Antioch school.

Elsbeth Casagrande, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Casagrande, 3707 Bon Homme Way, Concord is the second violinist. She has been the concert mistress for the Loma Vista Intermediate School where she is an eighth grade student.

Bob Johnson, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson of 1942 Ardith Drive, Pleasant Hill Intermediate School.

Judi Lamont, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Lamont, 5255 Olive Drive, Concord, has been studying the viola for the past 3½ years. In the recent Bank of America scholarship awards, Judi finished third place in the arts and sciences classification.

SHE IS GRADUATING in June from Mt. Diablo High School and plans to use the scholarship at Mills College where she was accepted, and wil major in music so that she can eventually teach it.

Both Judi and Bill Davis are also studying with Robert Rouke, violinist of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

Twenty-one years ago the Berkeley's Young People's Symphony Orchestra was started by a group of mothers. They gathered their talented children from 10 to 19 years and they played at each other's homes.

A year later, in December 1947, under the direction of Mrs. Marcelli, the group gave its first public concert. This spring they presented their 20th annual "Hour of Music" in Berkeley, and played for the second year at the Contra Costa Youth Series held at the Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek.

Since its founding, nearly 1500 young musicians have worked under Conductor Marcelli, and the orchestra has won national acclaim as an outstanding youth cultural project.

THE STRING quartet practices each week with Mrs. Compton at her home on Livonia Way, Concord, and attend Berkeley rehearsals Saturday afternoons.

In addition, another Pleasant Hill boy plays the clarinet in the orchestra. He is Roger Hendrix, 13, an eighth grade student at Pleasant Hill Intermediate Schol.

The quartet has made several local appearances recently, and plan to continue to play as a group after the summer vacation.

Sandy Tatum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Tatum of 3095 Hedaro Court, Lafayette, is Student Body secretary at Pleasant Hill High School. She also holds the office of secretary of the Diablo Valley Interschool Council and secretary of the Interschool Sportsmanship Council.

She has earned a life time membership in the California Scholarship Federation on the basis of five semesters in the local CSF chapter. Miss Tatum has held local and district offices in the Methodist Youth Fellowship. She is a member of the Pleasant Hill chapter of Rainbow Assembly.

Jack Weir, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Weir of 148 Mazie Drive, Pleasant Hill, is Student Body president of Pleasant Hill High School and is holding the office of Parliamentarian in the Diablo Valley Interschool Council. During his Junior year, he was vice president of the Student Body and, as such, presided over the House of Representatives.

Jack was entered in the Bank of America Scholarship competition. He is a life time member of the California Scholraship Federation, and is an active member of the Hillcrest Congregational Church.

Both students plan to enter College of the Pacific in the fall.

Circus Will Help Drive

Contra Costa residents can still make "A Day at the Circus" a part of their annual contribution to United Cerebral Palsy's programs of therapy and recreation for all CP victims in the East Contra Costa County area, it was announced.

Tickets for the remaining performances of the Polack Brothers Cerebral Palsy Circus, appearing in the Oakland Auditorium Arena through Sunday can still be purchased locally by Contra Costa County residents, according to Van M. Williams, chairman in charge of circus ticket sales.

The circus this year is part of the National Cerebral Palsy Golden Deed Parade and is a major spring fund-raising project of United Cerebral Palsy of East Contra Costa County, said Williams.

General admission tickets, selling for $1.20, will admit one adult or two children, and are one sale at the following places:

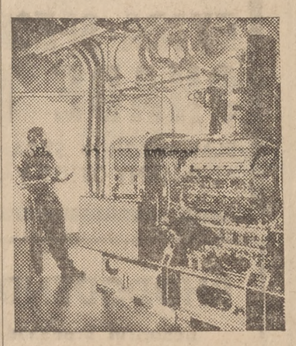
WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Walnut Creek

Guarding the safety of you and your family is a big part of any telephone man's job. That's why we each take a course in "defensive driving." It teaches us ways to avoid accidents—to anticipate what other drivers or pedestrians may do. It really works too. Our drivers cover millions of miles every year and chalk up one of the best safety records in the U.S. It pays off for us and our families, and for you too, for it helps make driving safer for everyone.

* * * *



A reserve of power guards your phone service—day in and day out. Happily, storms and other emergencies don't come along often. But we keep ready anyway. Special standby generators run by gasoline or diesel engines have been provided in each telephone central office. If needed, they can take over to supply necessary power. This is one of the many ways we work to provide telephone service you can count on.

WORK CAN BE FUN

Walnut Creek Service Representatives Nancy Snow (left) and JoAnn Smith were the creators of this very attractive Easter display which featured eye appealing colored phones and real Esater eggs. Service Representatives are the telephone employees to whom you speak when you call the business office for assistance. These requests can cover as many as two-hundred different subjects. A most interesting telephone job.

There's A Press Release For Every Type of Subject

By BOB RAPIDA

How to sell safety

Picked up a press release from the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies the other days and thought for a minute it was the same old stuff that's been coming across the desk concerning safety.

Found out though it was a little out of the ordinary and thought to pass it along.

The Stockton Rotary Club first heard these statements made by Dr. Harland K. Strasser, accident prevention specialist for the association.

"In proportion to the population, our traffic safety leadership in the United States can not compare in numbers, intesity or effectivieness with the proponents of a dog leach law in a town of 15,000 population." He continues to point out the case of a hit run driver.

"We might all of us recognize that traffic violations are involved in over 90 percent of all accidents and begin to feel a little nausea at such a typical statement as that attributed to a hit and run killer in California who said, 'I always considered myself a good driver. I only had a few speeding citations. . . .'."

Probably the statement which hit hardest, not at John Q. Pulbic, but rather, to the directors of safety campaigns was:

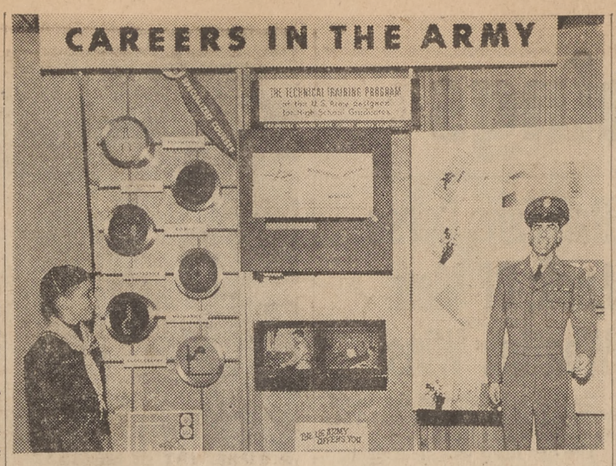
"But just as long as traffic safety is a second class crusade reserved for safety specialists who are dependent upon free radio tation break reminders and newspaper admonitions, all of us will continue to gamble on the highways with increasingly shorter odds."

It gets pretty old

Traffic safety isn't a controversial subject . . everybody is for it and nobody's against it. Who's going to come right out and say . . . "Traffic safety is for the birds."

That's right nobody. But, in effect, every time I get into the car and think to just slow down at a stop sign I'm in a hurry that's just what I'm doing . . . How 'bout you?

Rapid Regards 'til Next Week



CAREERS IN THE ARMY were on display at the first Armed Forces Day celebration ever held in Pleasant Hill. Arthur Barton takes a look at some of the career opportunities which will be open to him when he's just a little older. Despite the rain, many local residents turned out for the display.

CHP Officer Gives Bike Regulatons

"Bicycle riders keep to the right."

This traffic rule was one of several released today by Captain R. Magill of the California Highway Patrol.

"Bicyclists must ride with the traffic, not against it," declared Captain Magill. "This is a basic rule and one that is frequently violated."

Other rules for safe bicycling are listed below:

1. One person on a bicycle unless it is built for two.
2. Ride single file and in as straight a lines as possible.
3. Use hand and arm signals when turning.
4. Do not hitch on any other vehicle.
5. Save your stunt riding for other than the public roadway.
6. If you ride at night, you must have a white light to the front and a red light or reflector to the rear.
7. Keep your bicycle in good repair always.
8. Obey all traffic signs and lights.
9. Follow the rules and stay alive.

Christian Science

The spiritual basis of true grace and beauty will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" include the following from Psalms (90:16, 17): "Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (247:19-24): "Comeliness and grace are independent of matter. Being posseses its qualities before they are perceived humanly. Beauty is a thing of life, which dwells forever in the eternal Mind and reflects the charms of His goodness in expression, form, outline, and color."

DIESEL LOCOMOTIVES

Just 15 years ago diesel locomotives carried a mere one-twentieth of one per cent of all rail freight, points out the National Automobile Club. Now they pull nearly 85 per cent.

Meet the Largest Clan In Concord --

By ESTELLE GIRANDE

Unlike the fabled woman who lived in the shoe . . . "who had so many children . . . she didn't know what to do" . . . this matriarch knows exactly what to do.

The years of experience raising 14 children were seemingly sufficient to make her very matter-of-fact concerning her 36 devoted grandchildren.

THIS WOULD be more than enough for most women. But youthful, handsome Mrs. Cecelia McKinnon, in her early 60s, has also a full-time outside interest. The years sit lightly on the poised, well-groomed homemaker, who traveled a total of 18,000 miles across country in the past six months.

Mrs. McKinnon is the National Vice-President for the Western Division of the American Legion Auxiliary. In the performance of her duties, she covers eight states, Alaska and Hawaii.

The Leslie McKinonns moved 37 years ago to the two-story family home at 2360 East Street, Concord. The house consists of 12 rooms, with six bedrooms and a sleeping porch.

MANY YEARS AGO, they added a family-style room 20'x28' for their growing family. Today all 14 Elementary School, and all are graduates of Mount Diablo High School.

THE LESLIE McKINNONS are natives of California. Mrs. McKinnon was the second of ten children. She was born on a farm near Sonoma on which her 89 year old mother, Mrs. Clara Dowdale — also a native daughter — still resides.

McKinnon, 63, is active in his package store in El Monte, which he opened six years ago. Prior to that, he owned the Old Hangout for 25 years. He was a charter member of the Concord Legion Post 171 when it was founded 32 years ago, and has been the service officer for the past 27 successive years.

Thoughtfully Mrs. McKinnon said, "At first it took a while for me to learn how to manage a large family. This knowledge comes slowly. But I believe that religious training was the answer for my family."

"THE ADVANTAGES OF a large family are many," she continued. "It certainly gives them good training in unselfishness as each has to learn early the necessity of sharing toys, food, clothes, etc. They become thoughtful, considerate and interested in each other's well-being. Of course, responsibility in any family never ends. The physical and spiritual needs are no small chore for any parent."

"I think we instilled in our children what I learned in my own home as a child," Mrs. McKinnon said. "My parents made each of us ten children aware of their affection and individual interest in us. Our fourteen children know we are individually interested in each and every one of them. I think this is very important."

Minor crisis whether a birth, or a tonsilectomy, is the concern and interest to all. The telephone at East Street starts clamoring until all are reassured that the minor crisis has passed.

"OUR HOME WAS always a gathering place for community living. The children's guests had to pitch in and do chores just as any member of the family was expected to do theirs," reminisced Mrs. McKinnon. "Mealtimes were a particularly happy time of the day. At dinner everyone talked over the many small events that occurred during the day."

At birthdays and every holiday the family arrives the day long. Each Christmas Eve, it is the family tradition to have every members gathered around the huge Christmas tree under which rests a mountain of presents for parents, children, and grandchildren.

Local Students Win High Honors

Two East Contra Costa Junior College students have received $100 each under a Bank of America Junior College Business Awards program, announced College Director Karl O. Drexel.

Selected as the number one student majoring in banking or business administration was Ronald Price Elliott, 444 Alamitos Drive, Danville. A similar award went to JoAnn Costanza, 924 Talbart Street, Martinez, in the secretarial and clerical category.

S. Clarke Beise, president of the statewide bank who launched the program to encourage students to prepare for business and secretarial careers, cited a current need in business and industry for well-trained employees.

Dons, Knights Go Extra Innings

10th Round Sees Acalanes Ease Past Las Lomas

The Acalanes Dons and the Las Lomas Knights hooked up in an extra inning league baseball game May 16 with the Dons finally easing out in a 2-1 win when they scored in the bottom half of the 10th.

The Dons took a 1-0 lead in the third frame when pitcher Mike Kutscher singled and reached third in two infield plays that resulted in two outs.

Catcher Larry Smoot walked and went to second on a passed ball.

Third baseman Rich Markstein found a pitch to his liking and rapped a single to center field that scored Kutscher with Smoot winding up on third. Rightfielder Jack Carman ended the inning when he grounded out, pitcher to first.

THE KNIGHTS scored their run in the 6th when second baseman Bob Morris lead off with a walk and wound up on third when left fielder Rober Cowell singled to left.

Morris scored when shortstop Dan Hopkins, on a bunt, hit the ball on a line to Kutscher who muffed the ball.

Hopkins was safe and when first baseman Eric Nankiville drew a walk the bases were loaded, but it all ended with catcher Dick Dodge grounded to second baseman Dave Bojarsky who tossed the ball to shortstop Gary Hansen at second for the force out.

NEITHER CLUB scored in the 7th, 8th or 9th, and then came the bottom of the 10th.

Smoot flied out to left field, then Markstein walked. Carman laid down a well executed sacrifice bunt which put Markstein on second.

Carman was out at first, but in a throw to second to get Markstein the ball got away and he rolled on to third.

Left fielder Lon Marello was next at bat and with the count 1-0 he struck at a high ball and it got away from catcher Dodge who retrieved the ball off the backstop and heaved to pitcher Joe Sibley at the plate, but too late to catch Markstein who slid in with the winning run.

Pitcher Mike Kutscher went the route and was credited with the win, striking out 8, while giving up five hits and walking five.

Wade Hansen opened for the Knights, being relieved by Joe Sibley in the third. Seven Dons went down via strikeouts while Acalanes had five hits.

In the error column it was Acalanes 2, Las Lomas 3.

TAKING THE BIG JUMP in a recent Mt. Diablo-Pittsburg track meet at the Devils' oval is Dick Elsworth. His effort neted 19-¾ for the Diablo track squad. Thirteen track and field athletes from Mt. Ball Fans Curse Luck; Ol' Man Weather Wins

Games scheduled in the Diablo Valley Athletic League last Tuesday were rained out.

The day itself was clear enough, but the several inches of rain which came down after Friday left most fields a quagmire.

It was hoped that games could be reset for Wednesday, but at this writing the weatherman promised more wet weather and that would really put the damper on the schedule. Games rained out were as follows:

Acalanes at Pleasant Hill, Mt. Diablo at Pacifica and Las Lomas at Pittsburg.

Yesterday's schedule was as follows:

Pittsburg at Mt. Diablo; Pacifica at Acalanes and Pleasant Hill at Antioch.

Diablo, as of last Tuesday, held a three game bulge and had the pennant sewed up. It marks their first baseball title in 32 years.

Last year they tied with Acalanes for the top spot.

Record Turnout Anticipated for Hard-Top Event

Contra Costa Speedway officials anticipate a record turnout of cars for tomorrow night's weekly hard top racing program on the local quarter-mile track.

Saturday's time trials also will determine the 40 starters for the 200-lap pre-Memorial Day race Wednesday, track officials said today. Cars will not be permitted to qualify on the evening of the 200-lapper.

Local area pilots seeking starting berths for tomorrow's feature and the 200-lap race are Herb Williams, Walnut Creek; Dick Vossekuil, Jim, Doe and Hughie Payne, Jack Huddleston and Wayne Estes, Concord; Jack Clayton, Pleasant Hill; West Eden, Martinez, and Cliff Bennett, Pittsburg.

Final Sports Events Will Be Regional Track

The only thing remaining on top of the prep sports front is the North Coast and the State track meet, with both events slated for 10 a.m. and finals in the afternoon.

The same schedule pertains in the state track meets slated for June 1.

Berkeley High is the favorite to cop the North Coast event while the teams from the southern part of the state rate the edge in the big one as they excel in the track sport.

Shellfish are Now Dangerous

The County Health Department has warned residents against eating mussels during the summer and early autumn.

Shellfish have a "highly toxic" poison during certain times of the year. A quarantine has been declared. It will end on October 31.

Clams are also dangerous to eat unless well cooked, and unless dark spots are removed. Both mussels and clams eat plankton, which has an alkaloid akin to strychnine.

Camping Limit Set for Some State Parks

Announcement has been made by Newton B. Drury, chief of the Division of Beaches and Parks, that camping limits of 10 and 15 days would be imposed in some of the more popular state park areas effective June 1 and continuing until September 15.

Due to the increasing numbers of visitors to state parks, this action was deemed necessary to insure an even distribution of use of facilities so that more persons can take advantage of an outdoor vacation.

In parks not listed the camping limit is 30 days.

A 10-DAY camping limit will be in efefct at the following parks:

El Dorado County — D. L. Weather Fouls Sports In Sunny Month of May

By ERWIN MATTSON

It has really been an unusual year as far as weather is concerned particularly in the usually peaceful month of May.

Spring sports went along their merry way with little interference from the weather until this month—and then came the rains.

THE NORTH COAST SECTION

One track meet held at Pittsburg last Friday was the only section meet held as all others were rained out. Contra Costa Chamber of Commerce should take note.

Once in a while I get a note of my own usually in regard to some error in my reporting. This one came from Bruce Hancock of Miramonte High stating that I left out the fact that their are swimmers

Dick Hanlin set a new record in the 75 yard medley in a meet held recently during the North Coast Section meet. The time was :43.5. Dick was Miramonte's only point getter, garnering 11 in all and he was among the top 10 in the meet.

Congratulations to Dick and Miramonte.

Rest assured both will be in the headlines often in the future when Miramonte gets a swimming pool.

Dame Rumor had it that Dixon Farmer, Miramonte track flash, had moved and that he would be at Acalanes next year.

It turns out that only part of it is true. He moved all right but only to another part of Orinda.

If he had moved to Acalanes, Coach Eaton's track crew would really be the team to beat as he already has a good nucleus coming back from this year's county championship squad.

As it is Miramonte coach Bob Callen is breathing a bit easier and right now is concentrating on getting Farmer ready for the North Coast Section Meet to be tomorrow at Berkeley.

Berkeley High Triumphs In Regional Contests

The Berkeley High YellowJackets paced by Cebron Russ amassed enough points, 60½ to be exact, to take top varsity honors in the North Coast Section I Track Meet held at Pittsburg High last Friday afternoon.

Acalanes was tops in the DVAL winding up in fourth place with 25¼ points. Pittsburg was fifth with 19 while Encinal of Alameda had 15½ for 6th.

El Cerrito was second with 32¾ while Piedmont High came in third with 26.

Highlights of the varsity meet found Berkeley's quartet, consisting of Henry Allums, Jackie Williams, Nat Allums and Fred DeWitt rolling to a new time of 128.2 in the 880 yard relay.

The old time of 1:29.6 was set by Mt. Diablo in 1955.

Another mark went by the boards when Piedmon's ace miler ran a blistering mile to set a new one on the books at 4:24.9, which smashed the old mark of 4.35.3 set by McClain of Liberty of Brentwood in 1956.

The Pittsburg middle distance phenomenon Jesse Lee bettered his own mark of 1:58.9 set last year when he ran the two lap event in 1:57.6.

Bill McMillin of San Ramon won the quarter mile when he flashed to a 48:8 — the best of the year for Northern California.

George Hearne of Acalanes topped the pole vaulters when he cleared 12'4".

Another outstanding performance was a 141 foot three inch toss in the discus by Sidney Lane of Encinal.

Cebron Russ of Berkeley was a three time winner taking the 120 high hurdles in 14:5, the 180 lows in 19:6 and copping the broad jump at 21 feet 10 and three-eights inches, in addition to running a leg of winning relay team.

Diablo's Bill Gainer was a winner in the shot with a distance of 52 feet, 2 inches.

Pittsburg High copped the lightweight meet with 35 points.

Piedmont was second with 24½, Antioch third with 22, Miramonte 4th with 19, Acalanes 12th with 8½, Diablo 19th with 5, Pacifica tied for 20th with 3.

First place winners from the DVAL were as follows:

Costan (Pittsburg) 75 yard dash, 8:1; Enz (Antioch) 330, 36.3; Farmer (Miramonte) 70 yard high hurdles, 9:2; McLoughlin (Alhambra) broad jump, 21 ft. 6½ inches and Lawson (Pittsburg) discus, 127½ feet.

Cereda Hurls No-Hitter; Fans 16 for DVAL Record

All around star Mike Cereda missed a perfect game by one base on balls May 16, facing only 22 batsmen as the Pleasant Hill Rams set down Pacifica 1-0 on the Rams field.

Sixteen of the Spartans missed or looked at third strikes during the seven inning contest. Only five were able to get their bats on the ball.

THE 16 STRIKEOUTS sets a record for the DVAL-Contra Costa Division league.

Even with that, the Rams had a surprisingly tough time from the Spartans who have yet to win a league game.

Al Burton, the Pacifica lefthander, had a two-hitter with 10 strikeouts.

THOUGH THE LEFTY walked seven, he and Cereda would probably be pitching yet except for a sixth inning triple by Stu Robinson which drove in Dick Barels with the game's only run. The Spartan left fielder had reached first on a walk.

The only other Ram hit was by Mike Cereda, who reached Burton for a second inning single.

The incredible pitching was backed up by some pretty fine fielding. The Rams made no errors; Pacifica committed just one.

IN ANOTHER MAY 16 contest the Antioch Panthers slaughtered the Pittsburg Pirates 15-5 on their home grounds, avenging an early season 10-8 loss.

The Panthers spotted Pitt a 3-0 first inning lead and were tied 6-6 going into the bottom of the fifth when they exploded for eight runs and the ball game.

Steve Pardi started for the Pirates but failed to survive the Antioch fifth, and John Fields finished for the visitors.

DAN McKIMMY GOT the win. He shout out the Pirates for the final four innings after relieving John Rebstock in the third.

Antioch had a statistical edge, too, with 11 hits to Pitt's eight and no errors to the visitors' four.

Egan Tops ECC Hitters; Murray Leads In RBI's

Pitcher - first baseman Dick Egan was East Contra Costa Junior College's leading hitter during the Vikings' recently concluded 26 game season.

Egan batted .356 with 21 hits in 59 trips to the plate and also led the Vik team in runs scored with 17. He appeared in 21 contests.

RUNNERUP WAS pitcher Bob Carrick who hit .333 in 15 games. The other .300 or better swingers were outfielder - pitcher Dick Jones, .333; third baseman Russ Murray, .311 and outfielder Jerry Henderson, .300.

The team batting average was .251.

Murray drove in 15 runs to lead the East Contra Costa squad in the RBI department. He was also first in hits with 28.

Outfielder Bob Kinyon batted .242 in 20 games but led the team in home runs with three; another outfielder, Jim McMillin, was "endurance" champion. McMillin was the only player to appear in all of the Viks' contests.

Train Removal 'Tragic Error' Says Arnold

J. Howard Arnold of Albany, a director of the recently formed Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, today characterized the propose elimination of Bay Bridge trains and reconstruction of the bridge as "a tragic error, a step in the wrong direction."

Pointing out that the bridge trains are "the only Bay Area analog of the indispensable New York subway," Arnold suggests instead that congestion relief be sought by inducing motorists to train units."

TO THIS END, he suggests that the Transit District acquire the trains, rails, car shops and right-of way, reduce the transbay fare "from its absurdly high 46 cent level to 30 cents, 25 cents, or perhaps even 20 cents, and seek state purchase of $15,000,000 worth of modern lightweight high-powered train units.

Added automobile lanes, like new freeways, would merely generate new traffic,, he insists, quickly restoring traffic congestion to its previous level.

The remedy, he continued, is not elimination of the few existing rails we have, but conservation of these rails and incorporation of new rails in projected metropolitan-area freeways (as in the new Congress Street expressway in Chicago).

"Rails in freeways offer the best low-cost approach to rapid transit in the Bay Area," Arnold declared. Transbay busses, he added, should be eliminated from the bridge as needless high-cost competition with the trains; commuter busses, including Greyhound, should be restricted to East Bay operation, acting as feeders to the transbay trains.

"We must not let propaganda emanating from National City Lines, which controls Key System, convince us of the undesirability of train service on private rights-of way," Arnold protests; "the diesel bus on crowded freeways is far from the ultimate in commuter transit."

Also included in Arnold's four-point program fo rthe Transit District is resumption of commuter trains on the east side of the Bay, over Southern Pacific rails to Richmond and Crockett, and over Western Pacific to San Leandro and Hayward.

He urges replacement of diesel busses on some Eastbay routes by electric trolley busses.

Bankers Hold Installation

At an installation of officers for 1957-1958 of the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, held at Marsh Creek Lodge recently, Rabbi Stern of Oakland, gave an inspiring message of faith and confidence in oneself. An audience of over 100 bankers and guests from Contra Costa County heard the rabbi speak.

United Crusade Names Leaders

"The fine qualifications and outstanding record of previous volunteer service of these men indicate they are well equipped to handle the jobs for which they were chosen," was the statement of Henley V. Worthington, Contra Costa County campaign chairman for the 1957 United Crusade, as he recently announced the appointment of three campaign coordinators for the west, east and central county areas.

In the position of coordinator for Central Contra Costa is Charles Gable, retired assistant vice-president of the Cleveland Heights Bank, Ohio. He is an active member of the Contra Costa County United Fund board of directors as well as serving on the executive and allocations committee of that body.

His memberships also include the board of governors of UBAC and the Central Contra Costa County Welfare Council. For the past two years he has acted as chairman of the commerce and industry division of the United Crusade.

The League of Jewish Women of Contra Costa County celebrated its 5th Donor at a luncheon recently at the Villa de la Paix in Oakland.

The luncheon terminated the league's annual fund-raising endeavors for the benefit of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, and cooperation with and participation in many other community and civic activities, as an important part of the league's community relations program.

Mrs. Aaron Bojarsky, chairman of the affair, was assisted by Mesdames Leon Dinkin, Sy Sherman, Maurice Abend, Dave Spellman, Jack Cronin, Milton Winter, Percy Cohn and Milton Greenstein.

The "donor" was $7.50, which each woman was to have earned through some project which she undertook during the course of the year; $5 was used for the fund-raising project undertaken, $2.50 covered the cost of the excellent luncheon and entertainment.

County Group Desires New Election Date

Legislation that would change the day of annual election of local school board members from the third Friday to the third Tuesday in May has been endorsed by the Contra Costa County Board of Education, it was announced recently.

Assembly Bill 1566 has been approved by other Contra Costa groups, including the Board of Supervisors, on the grounds that since Tuesday is a generally accepted election day, the change might contribute to a larger vote. Also the compilation of eleetion returns would be made much easier than at present because school officers are ordinarily closed on Saturday, and newspapers publishing five days a week or less would be able to report election returns more promptly.
